They tell us that the proposed toll road is to gobble up a lot of forest preserve land. We are "agin" it on general principles. That route has been changed several times to get it out of the hair of owners of private property.

We hope the county board does not hand it over on a silver platter. That picnic ground is the only land that a lot of common people can call their own. If we must give way to the toll road, none of the remaining acreage should be inaccessible to the public.

Our readers this week will be interested in the reminiscenses of Herman F. Meyn of Mt. Prospect, who literally grew up with that village. His grandfather came to that area before there was a Mt. Prospect. As Herman grew, so did Mt. Prospect. He is retiring from active business this week, but the growth of the village will continue.

He still owns the property on which the Meyn homestead was originally located over 70 years ago. (See picture page.)

When we stated last week that the recent crime wave in Palatine is now a closed incident so far as this paper is concerned, we had no idea that two of the boys who had been placed on parole would again commit unlawful acts.

They are second offenders. Evidently their parents cannot keep them in line. We have not yet decided the course this newspaper should follow.

Shall we admit the defeat of society and run for cover from the small group of teenagers who are thumbing their noses at discipline in and out of school?

Will some of these juveniles follow the action of some government employees who refuse to sign non-communist statements? Will they claim that the circulating of good behavior pledge cards in the school is an invasion of their privacy?

And we suppose some parents will rise up in their defense.

The editor of a Georgia daily paper in a talk before a Kiwanis club said: "Any newspaper that fails to publicize police activities and court proceedings is extending an open invitation for hoodlums and corruption to take over the town."

We sometimes wonder how many people give serious consideration to national problems. Perhaps not many. Their interest starts and ends with their income tax.

They tell us that members of congress look to the home town newspaper to sound out public sentiment of their constituents.

Here are the answers on national issues sent to Washington by over a thousand editors;

Don't cut taxes yet.

No reduction in corporation taxes; continue excise taxes; no change in tax on dividends.

Extend foreign trade agreements.

Continue Reciprocal Trade Agreements act but maintain present level of taxation on corporation income from foreign investments. Editors were split about evenly on expansion of foreign aid by the government.

Keep 90% parity farm support program.

Only 7% of the rural editors favored no support program.

No federal health plan.

More than 51% opposed the President's health reinsurance program.

Continue public housing projects.

A majority supported the President's plan for 35,000 more public housing units in each of the next two fiscal years.

No revision for Taft-Hartley.

More than 86% like the labor law as is.

No guaranteed annual wage for workers.

Only 12% of the editors favored the GAW plan.

Pass a 90c minimum wage law.

Majority favored 90c, although 37% wanted it kept at 75c.

No vote for 18-year-olds

Majority opposed to sufferage for teens, although 42% answered yes.

No fair trade legislation.

More than 76% of editors said they opposed state laws making it possible for manufacturers to set the price at which his product is sold at retail.

Any of our readers who desire to take issue with the opinion of the editors can do so by using the Fence Post.

We learned many things last week when we attended some of the sessions of the Elementary School principals department of the NEA. We were supposed to tell the teachers how they could receive more and better publicity in the press, over the radio and TV.

They want as much publicity as the editors will give them and as much free time as the radios have room for. They are particularly jubilant when they are accorded a few minutes over the TV.

The only thing that they are not jubilant about are the "hot potatoes"—stories of the regretable things that occur in the school. We know what they are talking about, because the "hot potatoes" of the schools in our area are pretty cold by the time rumor brings them to the news desk.

Board Denies Increase In Liquor Licenses Here

Will Boost Fees to $700 for Taverns, Package Stores

No new liquor licenses will be made available in Arlington Heights at this time and all present liquor license fees will be raised as of May 1.

This action resulted Tuesday night at a special meeting of the village board which was held to discuss whether or not the board should change its present liquor ordinance to permit additional licenses in Arlington Heights. The question came up when application was made for 3 tavern licenses and 3 packaged liquor store licenses.

The village ordinance limits the number of tavern licenses to 12 and the number of liquor store licenses to 3, all of which are in use. Village President Albert W. Goedke, who is also liquor commissioner, brought the requests to the board's attention since no licenses were available.

TWO OF the requests for Class A licenses (taverns) were made by individuals desiring to erect bowling alleys in the village. One of these applicants, however, stated he was going to build a bowling alley regardless of whether or not he got a license, though he felt a liquor license would be an asset to the business.

Many of the present tavern owners in Arlington Heights were present at the meeting and voiced their objection to issuing any new licenses. They reminded the board they had objected strongly to an increase in license fees a year ago because the tavern business was not "thriving" in Arlington Heights, and several of the businesses were barely able to make ends meet. The same situation exists today, they said, and additional taverns are not the answer to the problem.

They all agreed that additional recreational facilities, namely bowling, were needed in the village, but more taverns were not. Fred Glueckert, president of the local liquor association, suggested that the men interested in having a liquor license with their bowling alley should contact some of the present owners of licenses and it might be possible to have them change their place of business to a new bowling alley.

LIQUOR LICENSES in Arlington Heights are not transferable in ownership. If the owner of a license dies or goes out of business, the license goes back to the village, which decides whether or not it should be issued to someone else.

Another tavern owner pointed out to the board that "Arlington Heights is mainly a residential community. Many young people have moved out here and purchased a home to raise a family, and these people do not have the money, the time or the desire to occupy our taverns. Those who think that just because the population has increased we need more taverns to serve them are mistaken."

The entire board went on record in favor of no change in the liquor ordinance.

Trustee Richard Bronwell then made a motion to have Village Attorney Hugo J. Thal draw up a new ordinance increasing the present liquor license fees.

Suggested licenses are: Class A, taverns, from $600 to $700 a year; Class B, packaged liquor stores, from $400 to $700; Class C, beer only, from $200 to $250; Class D, restaurants, from $400 to $700; and Class E, private clubs, from $125 to $150.

The motion was passed with 5 ayes, with Trustee David Zimmerman passing his vote.

Tax Bills Next Week; No Appeal

The 1954 tax bills will be in the mail next week. The township collectors have all now received their books and are preparing the bills for mailing as fast as possible. Many bills from some of the townships are already in the mail and all will be mailed by April 1, making the penalty date May 1st on the first installment of real estate and on all personal property bills. Penalty date on the second installment, if not paid with the first, is Sept. 1.

This year, for the first time, there is no appeal from tax bills. The amount shown on bills is "it," and there can be no appeal to the Board of Appeals. All valuations were approved last fall and no appeal can be made this spring.

Next fall the valuations for the new 4 year assessment will be reviewed, with books on dispay at the county building. After that review, there will be no further hearings on appeals. From now on, a tax bill means what it says after it is once made out.

The immense growth of the suburban area has put a lot more work on the local collectors who have uniformally increased their staffs to take care of the extra work.

Payment to the home collectors, as always, means quicker money for the schools and other taxing units and additional funds for the town fund through excess collections from the collector's office.

Heights Debaters End Season With 43 Wins, 18 Losses; Set Record

Arlington Heights freshman-sophomore debaters ended their season by winning 11 of their 16 debates in a practice tournament held at East Aurora.

Sally Fluent and Bob Siegel compiled the only unbeaten record in the "A" division, winning from La Grange, St. Edwards, East Aurora, and Freeport. Jan Davenport and Mary Jansen, by winning from St. Edwards and Freeport, brought Arlington the best team record in their division.

Eldon Kreider and John Peterson won from Lyons, East Aurora, New Trier, and lost to East Rockford. John Hipp and John Edmonds defeated La Grange and East Aurora while losing to New Trier and East Rockford.

Canvass For Dog Licenses; Fine For Lack of Vehicle Tags

Officers of the Arlington Heights police department will make a house to house canvass, beginning this week, to collect delinquent dog taxes. Those not purchasing 1955 tags for their dogs will be fined.

Tickets are now being issued to perons who haven't obtained their 1955 vehicle stickers. Those having tags must have them displayed on their windshield or they will also be subject to a fine.

To Vote On Bond Issue For New Fire Equipment

Two ordinances were passed at an adjourned meeting of the Arlington Heights village board Tuesday night.

One ordinance will provide for a vote at the April 19 municipal election on the question of floating a bond issue in the amount of $25,000 to purchase fire fighting equipment needed by the fire department.

The other set the polling places for the 2 new precincts in the village, which was recently redistricted to provide a total of 6 precincts.

All polling places and precinct boundaries will be published the week before election.

Pledge Good Citizenship in Effort To Beat Teenage Problems

Students at Arlington Heights high school were being asekd this week to sign pladges of good citizenship and high character.

The crusade is an aftermath of the Chicago Youth Rally in which 30,000 area teenagers pledged to combat alarming increases in juvenile crime and vandalism.

Student Council is directing the local campaign.

Pledge cards read: "I pledge to respect my parents and to act so as to bring them honor; to cherish my school for it gives me the tools to think and work by; to keep out of trouble and help others to stay on the right track; to serve God, to be a credit to my country and to make my city a better place to live in.

THE CURRENT student campaign is part of an effort to quash early signs of a teenage problem in Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect.

A spokesman for the high school reported this week that damage to school building and property is at an all-time high. This incudes writing on washroom walls, tampering and destroying wall equipment, damaging desk tops, smashed toilet bowls, broken door and window panels, and damage to buses.

One indication of a growing youth problem was the fighting which broke out among students after the Faculty-A Club game last week in which two girls attacked another girl and other students engaged in "disagreements."

The county sheriff's office has been investigating the disturbance.

ALTHOUGH HIGH school officials deny that "gangs" exist in th eh'gh school, there have been reports in the community of "unwholesome teenage groups" which wear similar clothing as a type of "uniform" and which behave in an anti-social manner.

If such "gangs" continue to exist and eventualy flourish in this area, school officials may put a ban on groups where entry is "based on the decision of the membership rather than on the free choice of any pupil in the school who is qualified by rules of the school to fill special aims of the organization."

Arlington Heights as yet does not have a serious teen proglem.

Thievery gangs, dope, rape — these have not yet become critical issues in Arlington.

BUT VANDALISM in the schools, fights and beatings; organization of gangs, hot rodding in residential streets—these are forerunners of more serious juvenile delinquency.

Paddock Publications has been taken to task for publicizing recent cases of teenage crime in the northwest area.

The cry of "sensational journalism" has beeen raised.

Commenting on the charge, S. R. Paddock, editor, said: "Our sole purpose is to alert an apathetic community to its responsibilities to youth. We seek to interest the community in its youth, and to warn them of a situation before it becomes critical and results in social and financial tragedy for the town."

Editor Discusses Juvenile Delinquency At 'Birthday Party'

Stuart R. Paddock Sr., editor of Paddock Publications, discussed juvenile delinquency Tuesday night at the Legion-Auxiliary birthday party of Merle Guild American Legion Post.

He admitted that he did not have the answer, except that he felt that greater publicity was needed to awaken parents to the real situation.

He said, "Corporal punishment may be old fashioned, but it was a remedy that worked in the old days and a boy or girl as old as 12 or 14 years of age is not too old to be spanked." He admitted that few parents, however, have the nerve to do it.

He criticized the schools which insist that a veil of secrecy should be drawn on school vandalism. He pinpointed some of the things that have been happening in the Arlington Heights high school, referring particularly to a recent fight, gangland style, on school property.

The editor also criticized the formation of semi-secret groups among the students. He said he thought it was time to investigate the purpose of these groups.

He praised the work of the student council in circulation of youth pledge cards, but suggested that a check be made of those students not interested in signing the cards.

Commander Nelson in introducing Mr. Paddock, presented him with a Citation of Recognition from the American Legion, Department of Illinois.

The auxiliary provided the refreshments which included a birthday cake.

Eastern Star To Show Movie Filmed Here

The "33 Club" of the Arlington Heights chapter of the Eastern Star is sponsoring a showing April 14 at 8 p.m. at the Eastern Star hall, located in the First Presbyterian church, of the movie, "Miss Hattie," which was partly filmed here in June, 1953 at the home of Miss Celia Hausam, 636 N. Dunton ave.

The cast, which includes Arthur Pangborn and Lyle Talbot, both of whom are TV and movie stars, and Grace Fields and others of Hollywood, has in addition 50 members of the local Eastern Star chapter who appear in the "mob" scenes.

The plot of "Miss Hattie" centers around a retired music teacher and the influence played in her life by her music pupils. The Wilding Production company of Chicago, who filmed the story for the John Deere Harvester co., were on location here at the Hausam home for three days shooting some interior and a great many exterior scenes. Also appearing in the film are 50 students from Maine township high school who sing in the production.

Urge Listing Of Dates On Community Calendar

Some time ago Mrs. Adolf Wiegand was appointed to handle a calendar of coming events in Arlington Heights. Every organization and group in the village was invited to call her and advise her of the dates of affairs they planned to hold during the coming year.

Purpose of the calendar is to prevent duplication of events on the same date. It was felt if there were a clearing house for dates this could be avoided. Mrs. Wiegand asked Paddock Publications to remind clubs, organizations and individuals that this service is still available and that she would appreciate being kept posted on coming events in order to keep the calendar up to date.

Those planning events to which the general public will be invited are urged to contact Mrs. Wiegand at Clearbrook 3-1500, and have them entered on the calendar. They are also invited to call her if they want to clear a date, that is, to see whether or not someone else has chosen a date they're interested in for some other event.

Mrs. Walk, Former Arlington Teacher, Dies

Mrs. Argola Walk, former teacher and principal of the South school, Arlington Heights, died at Newton, Ill., March 17.

Mrs. Walk began teaching in the fifth grade at the South school in September, 1937. In September, 1944, she assumed the duties of principal in addition to teaching. Her many acquaintances in Arlington Heights will rememebr her as an outstanding teacher and a friend to children.

Mrs. Walk resigned in September, 1952, to make her home in Newton and to care for her invalid mother. Shortly after her resignation she was stricken with multiple sclerosis. The disease developed rapidly and resulted in death last week.

Friends are being asked to contribute to the National Foundation of multiple sclerosis in lieu of other kinds of remembrances. Contributions to the society will be acknowledged both to the family and to the donor. All contributions are to be sent to Chicago Chapter, National Multiple Sclerosis Society, 53 West Jackson Blvd., Chicago, Illinois.

Ask Suburb Aid In Keeping City Election Honest

Suburbanites are needed to keep Chicago elections honest.

Jackson T. Boughner of Palatine issued a call this week for suburban residents to act as poll watchers in the river wards for the April 19 mayoral election.

Two watchers will be placed in each precinct.

Interested persons are requested to phone Boughner at Palatine 1032 or Henry Busse in Arlington Hts., or William Busse in Mt. Prospect.

First Returns Favor Water Softening Plant

First returns on the water softening questionnaire sent out by the village of Arlington Heights indicate that residents favor a municipal water softening service 3½ to 1.

To date 467 cards have been returned, with 362 in favor and 105 against. A total of 4,500 cards were sent out.

$40,000 Homes No Answer To School Support; Puffer

Erection of more $25,000 to $40,000 homes in the northwest area will not solve the school revenue dilemma.

Noble J. Puffer, county superintendent of schools, revealed this week that even expensive, high-priced homes do not pay their share of school support.

Blame of this situation rests with assessment valuations and the "antique" taxing methods provided for in the 1870 Illinois constitution.

Puffer described the school problem at a non-partisan meeting Thursday of the Palatine Young Republicans.

"A new home which sells for $20,000 is being assessed at $7,000," declared Puffer. "With a $1 educational rate, that house produces $70 toward the cost of education."

Each home averages 1 2/3 children every year.

"The cost of educating one child is more than $275 in most suburban districts," said Puffer. "A $70 tax to elementary schools means a deficit of $205 which must be made up by industrial, business, railroad, and vacant property as well as childless couples or families with grown children."

EXPLAINING that the system of taxation is antiquated, he urged revisions in the old constitution which would permit a graduated state income tax, which Puffer said would answer the state revenue problem.

"Illinois should assume a larger share of the cost of education," said the superintendent. "Less than 20 per cent of the cost of elementary and secondary education comes from the state treasury. More than 80 per cent is borne by local taxpayers."

Puffer concluded that an increase in the state sales tax is thus "desperately needed."

A 3 per cent tax would provide an additional $100 million in revenue.

Puffer said $52 million of this should go to schools.

"The common school fund should be increased from $144 million to $206 million for the biennium. A 1 cent hike in the sales tax would make up the difference," said Puffer.

He also cited the 12 to 18 month time lag in getting new homes on assessment rolls as cutting down school income.

STATE AID to schools is paid on the basis of average daily attendance. The 1954-55 claim for aid was filed last June on the basis of average daily attendance in the preceeding year. Payments started last month.

That means aid for rapidly growing Arlington Heights, for example, is 20 to 40 per cent behind actual enrollment needs. Arlington actually gets $51 per pupil less than it should from the state.

Puffer has urged townships to survey assessment valuations to make sure schools are getting as much money as they should.

A recent survey in Palatine township uncovered $2,500,000 in untapped revenue.

He said similar studies should be made in Wheeling, Elk Grove, Hanover, Schaumburg, and Barrington townships.

The cost of such surveys is "insignificant" compared with the total potential revenue which will come from increased assessed valuation, he said.

DRAMATIC portions of the operetta are being directed by Mrs. John Fink, while the ship board set is being constructed under the supervision of Mrs. Kay Campbell. Louis Rubidoux is the coordinator.

The staff of the Junior high school is continually seeking opportunities of this nature which help teach the students the necessity and value of cooperative efforts. Most of the practice sessions for a production of this kind are held during the daily activity period or after school hours.

Proceeds from the operetta will be used by the music and dramatics departments to purchase additional equipment for these departments.

A state charter has been applied for by the Northwest Cannonball Model Railroad club, according to Paul Richter of Arlington Heights, president.

Aims of the new group are: to further the interests of men and boys in the art of model railroading, to provide a forum where ideas could be exchanged and help given to members in solving railroad problems and to provide for older, more experienced men an opportunity to offer boys in the community the benefit of their experience.

Other officers of the club are R. C. Faitz of Arlington Heights, vice-president; H. O. Carlson of Inverness, secretary; and Charles Love of Palatine, treasurer. J. W. Christensen and R. H. deBerrard, of Palatine, are members of the executive committee.

THE PLATFORM, as announced by Harold Klingner, chairman, and the Progress Party, also presents an endorsement of judicial reform movements in the state which call for election of legally-trained men to the position of Police magistrate in Illinois villages.

Progress Party candidates are: Edward G. Carlisle and David Zimmerman, members of the village board who are running for re-election; William J. McNeil and Edwin L. Johnson, who were appointed to fill vacancies on the board last year and who are now running for election as trustee; and Albert C. Peters, lawyer, candidate for police magistrate. Peters has been serving as village prosecutor for the past year and a half.

"The four present members of the village board who are running for village trustee," Klingner said, "Have had an active part in scores of progressive measures which the village has put in effect over the past few years. They know how the village functions. They know its needs. That is why they promise further progress in the next four years. The planks of the platform on which they stand indicate the kind of progress they promise to give Arlington Heights in the years just ahead.

"OUR PARTY urges the continuation in office of these trustees," Klingner said, "because their term on the village board has been highlighted by progressive, planned action."

The text of the Progress Party platform announced by Klingner follows:

We dedicate ourselves to:

Continue the present village manager program. A village of our size needs the full-time services of a trained business administrator, qualified in village management, to conduct its day-to-day affairs.

"Solve the village sewer problem in a common sense way — using expert advice — in keeping with the continuing growth of the Village.

Lower the water rates as soon as possible, but not merely as a political expedient. Present rates are now necessary in order to meet the rapidly expanding demands on the present system without having to float a new bond issue.

Provide thorough supervision and control of garbage disposal services at a minimum cost.

Establish adequate fire fighting facilities on the north side of the North Western railway right-of-way.

Protect your property values through continued improvement of the Village Building and Zoning Codes, without regard to any special interests.

Provide sufficient and convenient public parking space for shoppers and commuters.

Maintain and protect the residential nature of our village.

Enforce village laws without favoritism.

Provide for the planned, orderly growth of the village.

Widen downtown streets as soon as equitable financing can be worked out.

Continue the mosquito abatement program.

Provide for the greater safety of both children and adult pedestrians by directing through traffic to main arteries and keeping fast-moving cars and trucks off residential streets.

The Progress Party is dedicated to good village government in all its branches. We believe the office of police magistrate should be held by a competent attorney who, by reason of legal training, can weigh the facts and the evidence and impartially administer justice. This is in keeping with judicial reform procedure recommended by civic, service and bar associations throughout the State of Illinois.

The Progress Party believes our village should have every important utility service that its people want and can afford. Our party believes and recent studies indicate that a municipal water softening plant may be desirable, and that it could be accomplished without any additional cost to the water user. Before approval is given to the project, we believe a majority of the voters should express themselves. Other projects have priority. Needed water mains and relief sewers must be provided before a water softening plant can be presented to the voters for their decision.

A PHANTOM?

WE HAVE A NEW DISAPPEARING ACT! A $565,000 ONE! NOW YOU SEE IT, NOW YOU DON'T.

The $565,000 estimated initial cost of the proposed municipal water-softening plant has the same disappearing quality that a $20,000 general fund balance had in being swallowed up without explanation in the current fiscal year's operation of village business. It is as elusive as the unexplained $12,700 which was diverted from the water-sewer fund to help set up the "projected safety factor" balance for the village.

The $565,000 figure first appeared in the minutes of the Board proceedings for Feb. 1, 1955.

CAN WE REALLY GET SOMETHING FOR NOTHING?

If the estimated cost of a municipal water-softening plant is $565,000, how can it possibly "be accomplished without any additional cost to the water user"? How will it be paid for?

Does the Village have a surplus of $565,000, so that the initial cost of installation can be paid for outright? Not even the incumbents claim that.

Or is the cost to be handled through a funded debt? But a debt, funded or otherwise, is still an obligation that ultimately must be discharged. And a municipality can only acquire money for the discharge of a debt through taxes.

It is quite possible that the present Board of Trustees does not intend to increase the cost to the water user. But the money has to come from somewhere, unless we intend to default on the obligation.

If there are about 4,000 water meters in the village, the initial investment would amount to a prorated cost of approximately $142 per meter. Does it matter much how the increase to the taxpayer is labeled? Does it matter much which hat we wear — the water user hat or the general taxpayer hat — when we pay our bills?

Even if nothing were done to retire this debt, there is still a cost of carrying it. If the money costs 2%, the interest charge alone on $565,000 amounts to $11,300 per annum — just about enough to eliminate the so-called surplus claimed by the present Trustees.

What about operation of the plant after installation? Are we so overstaffed that we won't have to hire additional personnel? What about repairs and maintenance and depreciation? Aren't these costs that will have to be borne by the taxpayer, if not the water user?

The Village Board states that before giving approval to the water-softening system "we want to be sure that a sizeable majority of the consumers desire it."

Now that position is laudable. But how are they going to ascertain the will of the majority? By referendum? By return of the cards enclosed with the letter mailed by the Village? And if only 500 cards are returned — about 12% of the water meters — could they be taken as a valid indication of majority sentiment?

Is it customary, if one really wishes to be responsive to the will of the majority, to authorize the preparation of an ordinance before determining that will?

The letters mailed to our citizens were dated March 7. Yet, five weeks prior to that date, at a regular meeting of the Board of Trustees on February 1, 1955, a motion authorizing the Village Attorney to prepare such an ordinance was unanimously carried. Apparently, they were determined to give us something for nothing.

Let's not get involved in obligations brought about by large expenditures for something the individual can install for himself if he wants it.

Let's vote for a SOLVENT VILLAGE with a RESPONSIVE BOARD.

Let's vote for the CIVIC SERVICE PARTY.

297 Women Tour High School During 'Education Days'

Women's education days at Arlington Heights high school last week attracted 297 women, including 9 who have no children of school age.

Mothers of high school students only numbered 122; mothers of elementary students 108, and mothers of students in both levels 71.

The visitors registered for 1 of 5 tours of the building each of which attempted to show one phase of thd high school program. The tours were in the fields of business education, modern education, science and math, freshman subjects and fine arts.

Freshman subjects was the most popular tour, appealing particularly to mothers of elementary school students. This tour was introduced in the program this year, and the interest shown in it indicates that it will be included in future women's education day programs, according to Harold L. Slichenmyer, superintendent of the school.

Modern education and the math znd science tours drew the next largest groups, but considerable interest was also shown in the other two tours.

To Act As Moderator At Career Conference

High school students of this area are invited to the seventh annual Chicago area career conference at the Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago, March 26.

Mayor Martin H. Kennelly will open the conference at 8:45 a.m. and the program will last until 4:20 p.m.

After the opening session, panel discussions will present information and answer questions on various occupational fields. The program is arranged so that a student may take part in several of these discussions.

Nelson Lowrey, dean of boys, at Arlington Heights high school, will act as moderator of the section on biological sciences.

The local high school will not organize a group to attend the conference this year, but the faculty and admin.stration recommend the conference highly as a source of information of value to high school students.

With The Blue Birds

Camp Fire Sunday

Sunday, March 13, was the beginning of Camp Fire Birthday week and was noted in all local churches by the attendance of camp fire girls and bluebirds. The girls attended the church of their faith in full costume. At the Presbyterian church, a group of 8 blue birds was accompanied by Mrs. Schomburg and Mrs. Crommelin. Mrs. Auer accompanied a group at Faith Lutheran church. Another group attended the Methodist church.

Joint Group Meeting

Helping Pixies and Honey Bears enjoyed a birthday get-together at Faith Lutheran church March 15. As their birthday gift to Camp Fire, the girls contributed their week's dues to the rehabilitation of Camp Fire's national headquarters in New York city. Since Camp Fire celebrated its 45th anniversary March 17, cupcakes served by Susan Bahr and Jean Ann Stedry, were decorated with shamrocks made from mint leaf candies. The Honey Bears welcomed 5 new members to their group at this time. The new bluebirds are Merrilee Bukowski, Dee Ann Dobbins, Carolyn Genevich, Linda Pollitz and Shirley Quinn.

45th Birthday Celebration

A huge birthday cake with 45 candles was the focal point of the camp fire birthday program held last Friday evening in the Central school auditorium in Mount Prospect. A replica (in frosting) of the crossed logs and flame of Camp Fire and the Wohelo triangle was atop this decorated masterpiece. Blue Bird and Camp Fire symbols adorned the sides of the many-tiered cake.

In keeping with campfire's birthday theme "Let Freedom Ring," the one and a half hour program contained 15 5-minute acts about America and its freedoms. Hostesses for the evening were Mount Prospect's eighth grade camp fire girls. Mrs. Carl Jensen, general chairman, gave a welcoming address and introduced the acts. Square, reel and party-game dancing comprised four of the acts. Honey Bears and Helping Pixies took part in this portion of the program. A paper doll drill, style show and two dramatic skits appeared on the program. Two of the groups sang campfire songs (Arlington Heights campfire girls participated in this group). A musical pantomine was performed by a seventh grade campfire group. Second grade Blue Birds showed the flags of the past, while fourth grade bluebirds spoke on the subject, "You and Your Flag." The "Belle" ringers played a selection by ringing bells of various tones. A display of handwork, made by the campfire and bluebird groups, was collected and arranged by fifth grade campfire girls.

Following the program, refreshments of cupcakes and punch were served to the guests. The birthday cake was cut and each campfire girl and bluebird received a piece to take home.

From The Police Blotter...

Seven fire calls the past week kept the Arlington Heights fire department on the alert. Four of the calls were in response to prairie fires, one of which was set by two small boys playing with matches.

The firemen also put out a fire in the Philip Johnson car which was parked in front of their home at 645 S. Dunton. A motor on a furnace in a home in the Westgate subdivision burned out and the firemen assisted in putting out the blaze. Another motor on a furnace caught fire Tuesday night. Firemen responded to the call which took them to 331 Carlyle in Stonegate subdivision.

Thirty-three cases were heard in traffic court Monday night and a total of $418 in fines was collected. Offenders included 2 drunken drivers, speeders, stop sign violations and persons failing to purchase village vehicle tags.

More vandalism was reported to police this week. Ludwig Marcy, who is building homes in the 1300 block on W. Campbell, told police several windows in the homes were broken. Marbles had been thrown through the glass. Alfred Snap informed police several boys driving in a car tossed eggs at his house. A trench tractor parked at 720 N. Kasper, had its carburetor smashed an dthe gas cap removed, according to a complaint registered by Mr. Osborne of Mount Prospect.

Thefts and damage to auto accessories were also among complaints registered this week. Arturo Conte reported fender skirts stolen from his auto parked at 1242 N. Walnut. Groceries were stolen out of an auto belonging to B. Berstion, 1504 N. Dunton, while it was parked in the A&P parking lot. Four hub caps were taken off an auto belonging to J. Bowlen, 15 N. Vail, while it was parked in the railroad parking lot between Dunton and Vail.

Other cases handled by the police included the shooting of 2 possums found in window wells of homes in the village. Three teenage boys were picked up for drinking beer in a parked car. Parents were notified and the boys will be properly reprimanded. A car belonging to C. Spillan, 400 E. Euclid, was sideswiped while parked on Belmont near the library, by a hit and run driver.

A 1939 blue Plymouth was found parked in the Homo milk company lot. It had no license or other identification on it. It was towed to Arlington Fender and Body shop.

A plate glass window was reported broken by Lester M. Kase, 351 Newbury pl. It is believed a passing auto "kicked" up a stone which did the damage.

Numerous accidents were also handled by the police, all but one resulting in property damage only. Harold A. Borst, 1008 Bell rd., Niles, Mich., claimed a back injury as a result of a 3-car collision at 610 W. Northwest hwy. Others involved in the accident were Peter M. Varney, 850 S. Vail, Arlington Heights, and Aubrey Oglesby, 1011 N. 15th ave., Melrose Park.

Lawrence College Choir To Sing At Arlington April 1

Lawrence College choir of Appleton, Wis., will present a concert to the general public April 1 in the girls' gymnasium of Arlington Heights high school at 8:15 p.m.

The Methodist church of Arlington Heights is sponsoring the program which will be a varied one, ranging from serene religious melodies to sharp, modern melodies. The choral group will sing here as a windup of their 25th annual winter tour.

To celebrate the anniversary, the choir's activity is greatly expanded. It sang a nationwide Christmas broadcast on the Mutual hookup and has scheduled appearances in Minnesta, Illinois, Indiana and Iowa, and has recorded an album of traditional choir favorites.

Many who have formally sung with this group have gone on to a name for themselves in the music world. One of these is Ben Gage who was an announcer for Bob Hope and NBC and is presently married to Esther Williams, swimming star.

Tickets can be purchased at Kindler's ice cream shop, Lohr's drug store, or by calling CL 3-0099 or CL 3-3138.

'Y' Youth Groups Discuss Government With Adlai Stevenson

Four members of the Northwest Suburban YMCA Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs met Wednesday with 330 other club members throughout the Chicago area to ask Adlai Stevenson questions pertinent to their university of good government program.

This meeting climaxed 4 sessions which have been held with such outstanding speakers as Bob Merriam, Joe Meek and Adlai Stevenson. The highlight of this YMCA activity is the week end trip to Springfield at which time the youth delegates take over the state legislature with their own governor and representatives.

Nat Glover, 713 N. Hickory, Jane Speers, 932 N. Highland, Dave Schimmel, 14 S. Evergreen, and Pete Swanson, 121 S. Highland, the representatives of the Northwest Suburban YMCA, also plan a visitation to the Arlington Heights village council meeting for their entire clubs. Through this program the youth of the community become better acquainted with the local and state governments.

Youthful Musician Wins High Rating

Auditions of the Illinois federation of music clubs, which this year include some 1200 junior musicians under the age of 18 in Illinois studying piano, voice, orchestral instruments or dancing, are now under way at Wurlitzer building, Chicago. Superior winners are eligible to play on the annual state junior festival program in Springfield May 14.

Virginia Erickson, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Erickson, 601 S. Burton Place, Arlington Heights, has been playing piano in these auditions for three years, entering at the age of 6. This year she has received a very high excellent rating, playing in a group composed mainly of 11 or 12-year-olds. The selections perfomed before three competent judges were "Passepied" by Weybright and "The Three Trolls" by Eckstein.

VIRGINIA DOES NOT have to be urged to practice—to her music is fun, and she has a number of pieces ready to play on short notice. She is a member of the Sostenuto junior music club, affiliated with the national federation of music clubs, and club counselor and teacher is Mrs. Zula Zeigler Wideroe of Golf road, who has a number of students in Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect. Club meetings are held once a month, at which a study of the lives of composers is made and their works illustrated by the junior musicians.

A student in the third grade at Dryden school, Virginia is also secretary of her brownie troop 242. When not at the piano, Virginia's hobby is reading , or playing with her collection of thirty dolls.

Turkish Teachers To Visit Arlington High

Arlington Heights high school has been selected as one of the schools to be visited by teachers from the secondary schools of Turkey who are now in the United States under the sponsorship of the Ford Foundation, observing and studying practices of secondary education.

Lufti Oztabag, a social science teacher, will visit the school for the week of March 27. Mrs. Nermin Karcioglu, a biology teacher, will be here the week of April 18.

The purpose of the program is to understand American educational practices, not to copy them. It is the hope of the Turkish government that these visits to schools and communities outside of Turkey will throw light on questions of educational theory and practice which are under study in Turkey.

In order that they may observe American family life, as well as school life, the visiting teachers will be guests in the home of Harold L. Slichenmyer, high school superintendent, during their stay in Arlington Heights.

DR. FRANKLIN FITCH

Sex Rears an Early Head

A child should know the basic facts of reproduction before he starts to school, Dryden school parents were advised by Franklin R. Fitch, M.D., who spoke at the March 15 PTA meeting. A member of the faculty of Northwestern university's medical school, Dr. Fitch has 25 years' experience in social hygiene education.

Illustrating his address with a movie, 'Human Growth," which showed the development of the human body from conception to adulthood, and explained the mechanics of the reproductive process, Dr. Fitch followed the presentation with a revealing and informative (discussion) period, in which he replied frankly and fully to written questions submitted by the parents.

If children are allowed to remain ignorant of the facts regarding their birth, warned Dr. Fitch, they will pick up the information from their playmates, but knowledge gained in this way is usually faulty and tarnished with a secretive attitude as well.

Dr. Fitch urged his listeners to use the correct terminology to their children in describing parts of the body or its functions. Short, simple answers will satisfy a child better than long-winded, oppressive explanations, he stated, and suggested that if a child does not ask questions on his own, parents should find occasion to arouse his interest and supply him with information. It is a safe bet, said Dr. Fitch, that the child of 8 or 9 has acquired some knowledge, most of it undoubtedly wrong.

The unanimously "excellent" evaluation given Dr. Fitch's talk was bestowed by a record crowd of more than 150.

Teach Child to Adapt

Just as the modern mother plays many roles — cook, laundress, bookkeeper, chauffeur, teacher, nurse, or what-have-you, and still may be found taking her part in civic affairs or other interests, so should her children be reared to accept change and stress in their own lives said Dr. Robert F. Topp, Dean of the National College of Education in Evanston, who spoke to North school PTA March 15.

The emotional problems of the child carry over into adult life, said Dr. Topp, and affect his adjustment to the situations he encounters when grown. He cited examples — one, of a boy handicapped by the loss of one eye, who was overly pitied and protected by his parents; two, of a boy sheltered all his life in his own small group; both boys grew up entirely unable to face or cope with adult problems.

Children need to meet people of different backgrounds, with different tastes, attitudes and opinions; they need a variety of experiences to prepare them for the future, said Dr. Topp. The wrecked marriages. Children need to realize the importance of giving as well as getting, of sacrifice as the basis of cooperation, he asserted.

In dealing with high school age or adolescent children, "challenge them with something big," said Father Hubbard. Quoting the old maxim, "You can't get more out of a pail than there is in it," Father Hubbard declared, "We don't begin to pour out of the pail what there is in it."

A child's interest must be aroused in worthwhile things, and he must be provided the means to develop these interests, Father Hubbard said. The morals, philosophy, actions, and even the tone of voice of the parents have a major influence on the child's development, he asserted, and asked his listeners the searching question, "How much do we do that might be titled an inspiration to the child?"

Father Hubbard's listeners will agree that Dryden school PTA is fortunate in having the opportunity to hear him at the April meeting.

Future Holds Ray of Hope

Speaking to Ridge school PTA at the March meeting, Superintendent of Schools Ralph E. Clabaugh predicted that expansion in Arlington Heights would reach its peak in a few years and begin to level off to a more stable population. In this way, he pointed out, many other villages with large rural areas yet undeveloped have a greater problem in planning educational facilities.

Mr. Clabaugh made another solo appearance at the Junior High school PTA Tuesday, where he discussed school planning with particular reference to problems affecting the Junior High school.

Is TV Slipping?

The record sale of books at the PTA Book Fair last Saturday seems to indicate an increased interest in reading among Arlington Heights children. In the opening hours of the fair, crowds were standing in line to get in, and again at the cashier's table to pay for their purchases.

Net profit to the PTA, which received 20% of each sale, was $275, and increase of $125 over last year's figure. The money received from the book fair goes toward the purchase of new books for the library, so the children can look forward to many hours of good reading from the library shelves in the coming year.

Mrs. Melvin Born, chairman of the event, is to be congratulated for the success of the fair. The book reviews given by Mrs. Florence Sorokin, librarian, and Miss Jean Wardrope, assistant librarian, in the schoolrooms the week preceding the sale undoubtedly were a major factor in the sale's success, because of the interest which they aroused in the children.

Urge State Board Of Education

Illinois needs a state board of education.

This is the opinion of William H. Carruthers, legislative chairman of the Illinois Education Association.

He said recently that Illinois public schools deserve a continuing body of competent and dedicated lay citizens, supported by the best in research, to recommend legislation, formulate policies, and give position and vision to education so the best interests of all people may be served.

Carruthers believes that because of the multiplicity of problems now facing Illinois schools, the time has come to establish a state board of education.

The IEA legislative chairman states that it should be composed entirely of lay citizens.

Girl Scout News

Last Sunday afternoon, intermediate troop 17 presented a play for the Junior Methodist Youth Fellowship. The play was called, "An Apple for the Teacher" and all parts were portrayed by the girls.

At the April girl scout leadership training course Arlington Heights has three new participants: Mrs. Meyer Herman 507 E. Euclid, Mrs. Brandau, Derbeyshire lane, and Mrs. Smalley, 1008 N. Highland.

A film on Hickory Hill camp will be shown March 24 at the home of Mrs. R. T. McClaughry, 825 N. Harvard. This film will be narrated by Mrs. Eleanor Lipps. Hickory Hill is a camp for intermediate and senior girl scouts.

Troops 11 and 269 joined forces and went to the roller rink. Brownie troops from DesPlaines also attended.

Troop 23 had its father-daughter banquet March 14 at the Presbyterian church. The menu was planned and prepared by the girls themselves. A play, "The Life of St. Patrick," was given for the fathers. Fun for all was had when the girls taught their fathers the Irish jig.

A special course in "fly up" procedure was held March 16 in DesPlaines. Mrs. F. Ragozinski, Mrs. C. W. Carlson, Mrs. Leon Paul, Mrs. Burton Bauer, Mrs. Frank Hauff, Mrs. Charles O'Dor and Mrs. John Crawford attended from Arlington Heights.

Northside Neighborhood meeting was held last Thursday at the Methodist church. Mrs. Charles Baker gave out the equipment to the "cookie captains" and explained the procedure for selling girl scout cookies beginning April 22. Mrs. R. T. McClaughry, neighborhood chairman, announced that all persons wishing to register for Hickory Hill camp or for Day Camp must have her registration in April 30. The Juliette Low fund must also be collected and received by Mrs. McClaughry by June 1. Mrs. Melvin Born showed a film which she had taken at Camp Pine of the brownies in a typical day at camp.

A new sixth grade intermediate troop has been added to the neighborhood. Mrs. Dunderdale, 218 Windsor drive, is the troop committee chairman. Leaders are Mrs. James Murphy and Mrs. R. W. Buckeridge.

Mrs. Melvin Born announced an orginazational tea for prospective brownie mothers at the field house March 28 to acquaint parents to brownies and mothers to scouting.

Manager Al Lopez of the Indians says he looks for Ralph Kiner to hit at least 40 home runs this year. According to The Sporting News, someone mentioned to Lopez that Kiner while with the Cubs last year hit 22 homers and drove in 73 runs. "That," said Lopez, "wouldn't be good enough to make this squad."

Mt. Prospect and Herman Meyn 'Grew Up' Together

by HAROLD RICKLEFS

Herman F. Meyn is retiring after 41 years of business in Mt. Prospect.

Born in the first residence constructed in the village, Mr. Meyn followed in his father's footsteps as a blacksmith. Later his business included farm equipment, as machines gradually replaced quadruped power on farms. As the village grew, Herman added lawnmowers to his line. An auction of farm equipment and lawnmower items will be held March 26 at 215 S. Emerson st., Mt. Prospect.

The substitution of gasoline engines for "hayburners" in furnishing horsepower for farming was witnessed by Mr. Meyn. The last horses to be shod in Mt. Prospect were owned 10 years ago by Frank Runge, a retired farmer of Arlington Heights. Mr. Meyn has not lit his blacksmith forge since.

The change to farm tractors was gradual. Herman sold his first International Harvester 35 years ago. The switch to automobiles from buggies was swifter and occurred just before and after World War I.

Mr. Meyn has watched Mt. Prospect grow from an unincorporated collection of three business buildings and one residence to a population of 8,000 and approximately 2,500 structures.

HIS GRANDFATHER, Fred Hennigsmeyer, a century ago, owned and farmed the area south of Lincoln st. and east of Main st., now known as Prospect Park. John Meyn, his father, came to Mt. Prospect and started his blacksmith shop on what is now Northwest highway in 1885. This is the site of the present Sinclair station at Busse ave. John Meyn boarded with the John C. Moehlings in the store building, which still stands on the northeast corner of the highway and Main st.

Later John Meyn built a home for his family on the present site of the Waffle Shop. His family outgrew the residence and it was sold in 1900. It has since been moved to Main st. where it still stands opposite the Busse Motor Sales garage adjoining Kirchhoff Insurance agency.

The original 3 business establishments at the time of Herman's birth were a flour and feed business conducted by John Moehling in a building located at what is now the Main street railroad crossing, the John Bauer grocery and tavern in the Moehling store building, and a creamery occupied by William Wille on the site of the present Wille Fuel and Lumber Co. building. Mr. Wille was also a carpenter and built the first house for John Meyn.

The original post office was located in the flour and feed building. Mr. Moehling was postmaster and John Meyn, assistant.

Herman Meyn began his business career as a blacksmith in 1914 on the site of his present business. In 1924 he bought his father's place on the highway and even tended the first gasoline pumps on the Northwest hwy. installed in front of his father's second house.

Eleven years later he razed the original blacksmith shop, erected the Sinclair gas station on its site and built the building at 215 S. Emerson st. 1935 was a hectic year for Herman, since as president of the village board, he supervised the construction of the water reservoir.

A CHARTER member of the Mt. Prospect Volunteer Fire Department, Herman served as fire chief from 1920 to 1937. Confirmed in the church of St. John on Church rd. in Elk Grove, Mr. Meyn has been a member of St. Paul's Lutheran church since 1913. He has served at various times as elder, trustee and on the church's school board. Married in 1911 to the former Miss Ida Deeke of Palatine, he built his home at 21 S. Maple st. in 1912.

His early schooling was in the parochial school of the Church of St. John and in the public school in Des Plaines. He completed his education at the Columbia Business college in Chicago.

Retirement from business will not end the activities of Mr. Meyn. He plans to remodel and rent the property at 215 S. Emerson st. for store purposes. He will also be kept busy managing his properties and gardening at home, which he has previously only been able to do on weekends. He is going to continue his interest in civic affairs. He will retain his membership in the Mt. Prospect Chamber of Commerce and other organizations to keep abreast of the times in the village with which he grew up.

Scout's Fish Fry Gigantic Success!

Last Friday, Troop 32 and Post 32 held a fish fry at the Arlington Heights Presbyterian church banquet hall. Burt Pate, chairman of the fish fry, commented that over 500 persons were served within the 2 and ½ hour serving period. Fish sticks and french fries were furnished by the Booth Frozen Foods company. Local Post Feels Growing Pains

Post 707, Arlington Heights, under the capable leadership of Post Adviser Albert Z. Wendt, announced this week that they have five (5) 6' x 6' x 6' Baker tents which, because of rapid post enrollment, must be sold. These tents, Wendt confirms, are in A—1 condition and have seen little action. Original cost, $24. Best offer "steals" them all. Interested Scouting organizations, see or ring Al Wendt, Cl 3-3670.

Blackhawk First Aid Meet Tomorrow Night

Complete Den Chief Training Meetings

Cub scouts of northwest suburban council are looking forward to better den activities as a result of the council-wide den chief training recently given at Arlington Heights field house.

More than 200 den chiefs, who represented every pack in the council, completed a busy afternoon of training at the annual den chief training conference. Den chiefs are boy scouts assigned by their troops to help train and lead the younger cub scouts.

Den chiefs who completed the training are to receive certificates in pack meetings this month. Training included stunts, tricks, games, song leading, puzzles and den operations. Thirty Scout leaders from all over the council served as insturctors.

Chairman of the event was Don Dickson, whose committee consisted of Al Armstrong, Don Sievers, Walter Criagle, Jerry Moore and Bill Mercer. All are district training chairmen. Also assisting were Art Fink, Council Training Chairman and Randy Falvey, one of the councils professional scouters who is assigned to training operations.

'Carolers' To Sing Here This Sunday

The Carolers will highlight Sunday's Community Concert program at Arlington Heights high school, at 8:15 p.m. Doors will open at 7:30 p.m.

These singers have been applauded from coast to coast not only for their concert appearances, but for their special demand performances, such as at the White House.

Soprano Penny Perry comes from Minneapolis where she started out as a staff radio singer. For 2 years she was featured soloist on "Chicago Theatre of the Air."

BARITONE Jonathan Wilson began singing as a choir boy in Mansfield, Ohio. He began serious vocal study with Bruce Benjamin at Oberlin conservatory. After 4 years in the navy he returned to New York radio and television, but feels his greatest musical accomplishment has been the persuasion of 4 successful soloists to join with him to form the Carolers.

Tenor Leo Bernache was born in Northampton, Mass., and is a graduate of Dartmouth college. As a member of the Amato opera theatre in New York City he has been heard most recenty in highly successful duet recitals with his wife, Nathalie Bernache.

Tenor Alvin Edmonson is a native of Montgomery, Ala., but he began his singing career in Atlanta, Ga., after completing 4 years with the army. During the summer of 1953 and again in 1954, he was a member of the opera department of the Berkshire Festival at Anglewood, where he sang, leading tenor roles in all the major productions.

BASS BARITONE Eric Carlson was born in Woodstock, New York, and is a graduate of Phillips Exeter academy. From 1941-1945 he was in the army overseas. After the war he was a member of "Finian's Rainbow" company. The Carolers' most successful arrangements are a tribute to his skill.

Those who are not now members of the Arlington Heights Community Concert association will have an opportunity of joining during the week of April 18. It is during this one week only that memberships are available for the concerts of 1955 and 1956.

employees, without regard to comparable annual pay outside of government.

There are also bills for salary increases for clerks of appellate court judges, for clerks of boards of election commissions, for trustees of villages, and for various Cook county positions. Other salary increase bills are expected for school teachers, township assessors, and other positions. Several bills have already been introduced creating new State agencies and new positions in existing agencies.

Lincolnwood Bars Motels, Trailers

Lincolnwood has turned thumbs down on construction of motels within village limits.

Henry A. Prossel, village president, said that he had always been opposed to construction of motels or trailer parks in the village.

Announcement of the village's policy came with the rejection of a proposed motel at Cicero and Estes aves.

14 Dealers Highlight Antique Show And Sale

Fine glassware will be polished, packing paper will fly, and spotlights will be adjusted Monday as 14 antique dealers assemble their exhibits for the second annual Mount Prospect antiques show and sale which opens Tuesday at 11 a.m. in Mount Prospect Country club. They will be on hand both Tuesday and Wednesday with antique pieces from all periods. The ladies of the women's organization of Community Presbyterian church as sponsors will assist and greet all guests and dealers.

Mrs. Edward Friedel of Arlington Heights, well known to collectors in this area, is planning a display which will include a collection of Bell Flower glass and an unusual pair of Lustre Staffordshire dogs. She will also feature a cranberry water set with a rare Mary Gregory design.

Also representing this area as the Country Cousins, Mrs. M. B. Pendleton, Mrs. Fred Welsh, and Mrs. S. G. Kline will feature informal furnishings gleaned from old homes around the countryside and refinished and restored to fit into today's decor. Their color scheme will be chiefly black and white; black iron chairs and several tables being used with milk glass furnishing the white accent. One unusual iron pedestal table with a marble top is particularly interesting and most suitable for patio or porch use. Another unique piece they will display may strike a nostalgic note in some Purdue alumnus heart, for it is a black iron plaque with the University of Purdue crest on it.

An Elgin dealer will feature many old iron kettles and boilers popularly used for summer planting and several large primitive bowls and utensils to add color to summer barbecue parties. She will also bring with her an old English tankard made of coin silver dating back to 1731.

March 29 and 30 will be the culmination of preliminary plans and preparations made for the affair by Mrs. Russell Brown, chairman of the show, and her committee which includes Mrs. William Watson, Mrs. Myron Hartley, Mrs. Charles Beesley, Mrs. Jack Bornhoeft, and Mrs. Roy Hardin. They will be on hand with their respective committees to serve light refreshments and luncheon and sell tickets which will be available at the door from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. The admission price, a 75 cent donation, will entitle each guest to homemade cake and coffee; luncheon will be served for 80 cents. Mrs. Charles Beesley announces that luncheon menus will include baked ham and barbecued beef; and there will also be a Lenten menu available. Acting as hostesses for the show will be Mrs. R. Norman Herbert, Mrs. Harold Bradshaw and Mrs. William Watson.

To set the mood for the coming event several members of the committee plan to don Gay Nineties costumes and tour surrounding communities Saturday in a 1923 Buick open touring car. The automobile is one familiar to Arlington Heights neighbors as it is the property of American Legion Merle Guild post 208, currently under the command of Mrs. Arthur Nelson of Arlington Heights.

Illinois TAX FACTS

By George B. Mahin, Executive Secretary, Taxpayers Federation of Illinois

The Illinois general assembly will add insult to injury if it cuts the taxpapers' income by imposing new or increased state taxes and at the same time indiscriminately votes pay raises for every state and local branch of the army of tax-supported public employees, the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois has stated.

A bill authorizing a 20 per cent increase in maximum pay for members of county boards of supervisors, from $10 to $12 per day for time spent including committee work, would have advanced without even an opportunity for consideration in committee if it had not been for an objection against such hasty action by Representative Frank Holten of East St. Louis, taxpayers' federation pointed out.

"Instead of advancing such legislation without any consideration at all, the members of the general assembly might first find out how much the present per diem pay adds up to in the course of a year," the federations release stated. "It's almost unbelievable how many days some county board members apparently spend at committee meetings."

There are already bills introduced providing blanket pay increases for state employees which would benefit not only those state employees who are underpaid but also those who are already paid more than employees in comparable jobs in private enterprise. There are other bills that would raise the pay of special groups of state

HELENE BRISTOL, Editor 2104 South Street CLearbrook 3-8125

Hello again! It's good to be back writing your news column after my two-week absence. It was a pretty important two weeks for the Bristol family, however, since it saw the arrival of our son, Bobby.

Lutheran Church Pot Luck Supper Success

An outstanding turnout of approximately 80 people made the first pot luck supper of the Lutheran church in Rolling Meadows a great success. The supper was held at the Kimball Hill school Sunday evening. Each family brought either a hot dish or a salad, and only those who enjoyed the delicious food can appreciate what good cooks those Lutheran ladies are. Coffee and desert were furnished by the Lutheran Ladies society, and milk for the children was served through the courtesy of Hedlins Dairy company and the Borden Milk company. On hand to participate in the happy event were the pastors of the sponsoring churches

—Rev. Luther Stephan of St. Peter church in Arlington Heights and Rev. Rosenberg of Immanual Church in Palatine. Rev. Stephan was accompanied by two of his children, and Rev. Rosenberg brought Mrs. Rosenberg to the supper. Also present was Mr. Bartels, the vicar of St. Peter church. Following the supper a community sing was held, and several games were played by those present. Special slides were shown for the children.

Lutheran Ladies Group Changes Meeting Time

Due to a conflict of meeting dates at the Kimball Hill school it was necessary to change the meeting place and date of the Lutheran Ladies society which was scheduled for March 22. The meeting will now be held Tuesday evening, March 29. Mrs. Velma Bozee has graciously offered the use of her home at 2200 George st. for the meeting. The Lutheran Ladies society extends an invitation to any interested woman in the community to join them at their meeting next week, and urges all present members to be on hand for this important meeting.

Welcome World

A wee bit early for St. Patrick's day, but not too early to be named in his honor was the young son, their first child, of Lawrence and Felicia Hickey. Little Patrick Kevin Hickey checked into Resurrection hospital in Chicago at 6:04 a.m., March 15, tipping the scales at 7 pounds. His arrival home Sunday, was a really big event for the grandparents—Bill and Mae Hickey of 2411 George st., with whom Larry and Felicia live, and Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Vespa of Watertown, New York. The most excited person over the arrival of little Patrick is without doubt his eight year old uncle, Bobby Hickey.

Announce Girl Scout Brownie Camp Program

The girl scout and brownie camping programs for this coming summer were the primary topics of discussion at the Rolling Meadows Neighborhood association meeting held at the Kimball Hill school March 15. Sue Harding, professional worker of the Northwest council presented films and discussed the camping programs with parents and Neighborhood association members present.

The regular full-time camping program for girls in this council is held at the Hickory Hill camp near Edgerton, Wisconsin.

The camping program in which most brownies and girl scouts of Rolling Meadows will undoubtedly participate, however, is the outstanding day camp program which is offered. This is not to be considered a "secondary" program, but gives the girls a chance to return to their own homes each evening.

The day camp will be held from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. 4 days a week for a 2-week period, or a total of 8 days of camping. The rates are extremely reasonable. The brownie program is only $3 for the 2 week session and this includes 3 cook-out meals as well as milk daily. The girl scout program is $5 for the 2 week period and this also includes a daily milk ration and cook-out meals each day except the first and last days of the session.

There is a fee of $3.50 for bus transportation if it is needed by the girls. Parents are urged to seriously consider this outstanding program for their girls, and to promptly fill out and follow the mailing directions on the camping forms which the girls will be bringing home.

New Girl Scout Troop Number

The new troop number which has been so eagerly awaited by the girl scouts in the newly-formed troop under the direction of Mrs. Ruthmary Zupan and Mrs. Evelyn Jesperson has finally been received. The new number which the girls will be wearing on their uniforms is Troop 353. The members of this troop can also be easily recognized by their yellow neckerchiefs. The troop is busy working on their Easter projects. Two new girls have joined the troop. They are Sandra Schniedel of 3103 Wilke rd. and Nadine Martin of Kirchhoff rd. The scouts have enthusiastically welcomed the new "Tenderfeet" to their midst and hope they will enjoy the scouting program as much as the other girl scouts do.

Car Pool or Riders Wanted

Ed Preston, who lives at 2404 Sigwalt st., has been told there are several other residents of Rolling Meadows who also work at his place of employment, Zenith Radio company at Austin and Dickens in Chicago. He would like very much to establish a car pool or secure riders for his car with fellow employees or with other residents who work in the same vicinity or along the route of travel to Chicago. If you are interested in cooperating in this venture why don't you give Mr. Preston a call. His telephone number is Clearbrook 3-8074.

Home Demonstration Party

The occasion for that happy group March 16, at the home of Mrs. James Stover of 2802 St. James st., was a home demonstration party. The demonstration which was conducted by Mrs. Norma Mortenson was an outstanding success. Among those present were Ann Chellman, Pat Komosa, Wanda Olsen, Grace Frires, Betty Faust, Dorothy Bornarth, Lillian Walker, Betty Rybski, Rosemary Theal, all of St. James st., and June Murphy of Jay lane. Following the demonstration, Mrs. Stover served the group coffee and cake, and an enjoyable social visit was had by all.

Child Bit By Dog

Neal Christensen, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Christensen of 2200 Jay lane, was hit by a dog recently on his way home from school. Fortunately following an observation period it was found the dog was not rabid and the extremely painful rabies shots were not needed by Neal. This incident again brings the dog problem to the fore, however. Every resident who has a dog is strongly urged to keep them under control, either by fences or on a leash, rabies shots cannot be stressed too much.

Hospitalized

Little Peter Nester of 2102 Jay lane, who is only 18 months old, was a recent patient at West Suburban hospital. Peter developed a bad case of tonsillitis and when his temperature rose to more than 105 his parents rushed him to the hospital. He has now returned home, and is recovering.

Birthday Celebrations

Judging from the great number of birthday celebrations in Rolling Meadows recently, March certainly must be a popular month with the Stork. Probably the most appropriate birthday of the month is that of Timothy Patrick Grady who was born 1 year ago on — you guessed it — St. Patrick's day. Jack and Jackie Grady of 2808 Dove st., held Timmy's first birthday party last Saturday.

There was a double birthday celebration in the family of Herb and Marge Hansen of 2317 Bluebird lane last week. Their son, Richard, was 6 years old March 16, and in observation of his birthday he brought cupcakes to his kindergarten class. The Hansen's younger son, John, was 1 year old March 20, and a double family party was held at that time for the 2 boys. The boys' grandmother, Mrs. Helmer Hansen of Park Ridge was on hand for the party, as well as their great-grandmother, Mrs. A. F. Schultz of State rd. in Arlington Heights.

Saturday was the date of the sixth birthday celebration of little Diane Keller, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Keller of 2500 South st. Diane was hostess to 4 of her young playmates, Nancy Kirtz, Patsy Malone, Susan Schon and Patsy Frey. Also present at the birthday party was Diane's grandmother, Mrs. Irene Lamprecht of Arlington Heights. Sunday Diane also treated her Sunday school class at the Community church to a birthday treat by bringing candy for her fellow classmates.

A real family celebration with 17 adults and 5 children was held in honor of the birthday of Rudy Grimm of 2103 Jay lane, March 12. That birthday party is one not to be forgotten soon with such a real overflow crowd of happy celebrants.

St. Patrick's night was the occasion for the birthday celebration which Stella Rajkowski held for her husband, Joe. The Rajkowski's, who live at 2905 Wilke rd., entertained a group of their neighbors for the event including Joe and Seina McGovern, Bill and Louise Klouthis, Pete and Eleanor Keller, as well as several relatives of the family. Donny Rajkowski helped his father celebrate by acting as host to Kenny and Bobby Keller and Willie Klouthis while their parents attended the "grown-up party."

Little Paul Wayne Werfelmann held 2 parties to appropriately celebrate his second birthday. March 15 his birthday, he was host to a party for a group of his little friends in the neighborhood. Among those present were Barbara and Keith Michels, Ruth and Marilyn Trenter, David and Paul Derezotes. Sunday, his parents, Bonnie and Paul Werfelmann, held a family party for their young son. The Werfelmann home is at 2406 Meadow drive.

Lorie Stapleton of 2312 Wing st. observed her birthday March 16, but the real celebration of the event did not come until the next night when she and her husband, Joe, attended the St. Patrick's day festivities at Our Lady of the Wayside. Lorie and Joe thoroughly enjoyed the corned beef and cabbage dinner, and Lorie honored both St. Pat and herself with the beautiful green carnation corsage which she wore for the occasion.

Little Ruth Trenter, the young daughter of Miriam and Lou Trenter of 2402 Meadow drive, observed her fourth birthday Wednesday, Sunday her parents held a family party for their young daughter. The Sunday birthday party was in reality a double celebration for both Ruth and her young cousin, Curtis Boylls of Chicago who was 8 years old. Present for the celebration were Curtis's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boylls, and the children's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.

Home Accident

Unfortunately, children's electrical toys are oftentimes not made as sturdily as they should be. This was the sad experience in the home of Herb and Marge Hansen of 2317 Bluebird lane. Their young son had received a record of "Davie Crockett" for his birthday, and the following morning could hardly wait to get out of bed to play it on his phonograph. The outlet plug had badly deteriorated, and when the child plugged it into the outlet a violent burst of fire resulted, badly burning his hand as well as the surrounding furnishings. The Hansen family hopes that the frightening experience which they had will serve as a warning to other parents. Please check the electrical wiring on your children's toys.

Exhibits Paintings

One of Rolling Meadows more talented residents is a newcomer to the community. He is Edward J. Mikula of 2401 Park st. At the present time Mr. Mikula is presenting a group of his paintings in the 22nd Annual Polish Art Exhibit which is currently being held at Leonard's restaurant at 1307 Milwaukee ave. in Chicago. The exhibit will continue through Sunday, March 27. Mr. Mikula has been painting since he was five years old, and has now started his wife and children painting, too. The Mikula family is eagerly looking forward to this summer when they plan a combination camping-painting trip. Since it will be their first camping experience, you can well imagine the enthusiasm with which the family is awaiting warm weather.

Sympathy Expressed

Their new neighbors and friends have expressed their sincere sympathy to August and Talitha Krecker of 2603 School drive over the death of Mr. Krecker's mother last week. Sympathy also goes to the 3 Krecker children over the loss of their grandmother.

Pat and Al Louis of 2107 Wing street have their hands full these days with 2 very sick youngsters. Both Jeffrey, who is 3½, and Christopher, who is 2½, have whooping cough, and are pretty sick little boys. The main worry of the family now is that their little daughter Kathy, who is only six monghs old, will be affected by the disease.

Bible Study Group Formed

A Bible study group of Rolling Meadows has been formed. Mrs. Aileen Wertheimer will be the teacher of the group, and the group will meet in a different home each week, and the meetings will be held every Turesday evening at 7:30 p.m. It is hoped the meetings can be limited to approximately one hour. For further information you are urged to call Alice Swetman of 2102 South Street. Her telephone number is Clearbrook 3-8136.

Each girl thought she was attending a shower for the other, and consequently 2 very surprised expectant mothers attended their own showers. Lucy Holden and Louella Fink were hostesses at 2106 Eastman street for a double baby shower for Loretta Hansen and Barbara Walther, both of Eastman street, last Saturday. Among the guests present were Charlotte Heitbrink, Doris Zaccard, Renee Jaremus, Rita Evans, all of Rolling Meadows, and Kathy O'Brien of Chicago. Many beautiful gifts were received by the 2 guests of honor, and a delicious buffet was enjoyed by the guests.

Women's Association

Meeting Great Success

The Women's Association of the Rolling Meadows Community church held their regular monthly meeting Thursday evening, March 17. A group of approximately 75 women were present in the lower loft of the Community Barn to hear John Bickett of Wing st. Mr. Bickett is the assistant farm advisor for Cook county, and he presented a talk on landscaping and gardening. He also showed some extremely interesting movies on the subject. The hostesses for the evening were Myrna Novak, Mary Estrella, Ethel Maruda, Myrla Garrity and Martha Jordan.

Among the various items of business settled at the meeting was the setting up of a nominating committee to nominate officers for the next year. The officers will be nominated at the May meeting of the group. The members of the nominating committee are Betty Conzett, Evelyn Jesperson and Florence Nyblin. It was also decided that the officers would draw up the by-laws and constitution for the group for presentation and approval at the May meeting. It was also decided that dues of $2 per year would be set for membership in the Women's association.

The next meeting of the Women's association will be held April 14. That meeting will be devoted to a fashion show with members of the group acting as models.

Thrift Shop Open

The Community church Thrift Shop is now open and some extremely interesting pieces of merchandise are on display. The shop is open Monday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. and Thursday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. It is under the direction of Ruby Yurtis of 2100 South street, Clearbrook 3-8137.

All items must be in good condition and clean, and items of clothing must be freshly ironed and cleaned, with all belts, buttons, etc. attached.

Remember if you are looking for bargains in anything from bedroom lamps to galoshes for the baby be sure to stop in at the Thrift Shop to see what is offered.

Weekend Trip

Art and Audrey Krause of 2407 Wing street spent last weekend in Indiana visiting Mrs. Krause's mother on the occasion of her birthday. The trip to see their grandmother was an exciting event for the 3 Krause children, Terry, Artha and Sherry.

Accident Victim

On her very first day of work, Monday, Dolores Szwiec of 2504 Fremont st. was a victim of a rather serious accident. Only five minutes before she was due to leave for home Dolores cut her middle finger of her left hand, necessitating 4 stitches. She was rushed to the doctor, and her many friends and co-workers hope she will soon be feeling much better.

Card Club Meeting

Feehanville School

School board election time is here again. Last July when the 7-man board was elected, Noble Puffer attended the organizing of the new board and superintended drawing lots for length of term. Ed Brookhouzen and Kenneth Karnuth drew the short straws — the 1-year term. In the 9 months these men have served, they have both proved themselves very valuable members of the board. They have expressed their willingness to serve for a longer period, and petitions have been filed asking that these men serve as candidates in the election April 9.

PTA

Election of officers was an important part of the business meeting of the March meeting. The slate of officers presented by the nominating committee were unanimously elected. These were: president, Mrs. Elizabeth Flink; vice-president, Carl Bischof; treasurer, Irwin Phar, and secretary, Mrs. Kenneth Zschach. Installation of officers will be at the May meeting.

Mrs. Roberta Phar, chairman of the Ways and Means committee, announced April 23 as the date for the games party to be held at the schoolhouse. Games will be played in the schoolrooms with dancing in the basement. Tickets are on sale and will be 50c a person. A tentative date was set for the Fun fair May 21. This will probably be held in the new all-purpose room, and more outside activities are planned for this year.

Mrs. Hazel Cavett expressed the appreciation of the pupils for the soccor balls recently given them by the PTA.

C. W. Flink, president of the board of education, spoke a few words in the assembly and introduced Ed Brookhouzen, budget chairman of the board. Mr. Brookhouzen gave a clear and concise financial picture of the school district. He showed what could be expected with the levy at the present level, he showed how necessary an increase in the levy is to cover operating costs, particularly these first few years when so many new things are needed in the larger school.

Hospitality committee had the lunchroom beautifully decorated in green and white with St. Patrick's day shamrocks used for namecards. Lovely green plants were on each table. Mrs. Val Barton and Mrs. Rose Kirste of the Hospitality committee were present to keep things running smoothly, and Mrs. Viola Olson, Mrs. Edwin Alten and Miss Idyl Nipper, who were on the refreshment committee for the month, furnished delicious cake and cupcakes.

Scouts

Traditional candle-lighting ceremony was the high point of the program at the last Neighborhood meeting of the adult scouts. Marge Houser of the troop committee of brownie troop 231, and Val Barton, Betty Arkell and Jeanne Duncanson of the troop committee of Intermediate troop 233 were invested at this ceremony. The promise was made and the laws repeated, and everyone joined in singing the promise song. Among those who attended from here were Mrs. Eve Anderson, Mrs. Mae Schmitz, Mrs. Dorothy Karnuth, Mrs. Jeanne Duncanson, Mrs. Betty Arkell, Mrs. Marge Houser, Mrs. Val Barton and Mrs. I. A. Hanson. Plans for the May meeting include a cook-out to be designed along lines that can be duplicated by any of the troops. Mrs. Marge Houser is on the committee of 3 to help plan the cook-out. Mrs. Jeanne Duncanson, who is in charge of the cookie sale program for the North Neighborhood, explained to the leaders how the program would work and answered questions. Refreshments were served by the Oak school troop leaders.

Sunday is annual missionary day at Forest River church. Mr. Bergstrom, who has been a missionary in China and Japan, will be the speaker at the evening service at 7:30. Prospect Meadows

If you happened to watch Super Circus last Sunday, and if the laughs from the audience sounded familiar, you have a good ear. Our brownie troop made up a part of that audience. It was a day that had long been looked forward to by the girls. Since train schedules ruled their time, the brownies had a rather lopsided arrival and departure. With time to spare before the TV show, the girls toured the North Western station, the Opera house, and indulged in ice cream treats. After the show they had just 15 minutes to fly to the station and catch their train home. Consensus of opinion was that the day fully lived up to all expectations.

They Were There

Arlington Heights school system held its book fair at the junior high school last Saturday. Behind those stacks of books leaving the school were literally dozens of Prospect Meadows children. Yes, the Meadows was well represented at the fair.

'Bundle Day' Monday At Wilson School

The Save-the-Children "Bundle Day" clothing collection is turning up unsuspected treasures in bureau drawers, closets and attics here as Wilson school pupils, Palatine rd., carry on their search for still-wearable garments for less fortunate children in this country, in Korea, and in Europe.

Although the real value of the clothing can be fully appreciated only by a child whose ragged clothes or need for shoes make him unable to go to school, Robert G. Parsons, school principal, said that the bundles now being gathered for the drive to be held beginning March 28, are of importance to all persons interested in the health and welfare of children whom the Save the Children Federation will be able to help as a result of the nation-wide Bundle Day crusade.

FEDERATION officials urge citizens to help speed the clothing on its way to the children by making a small cash contribution to defray the cost of sorting, reconditioning and processing the clothing for distribution. Cash contributions in any amount may be sent to: National Headquarters, Save the Children Federation, Carnegie Endowment International Center, 345 East 46th st., New York, 17, N. Y.

Principal Parsons asked families without school-age children to join in the effort to clothe needy children and their families.

"Any child in your neighborhood will be glad to take your contribution of shoes, clothing or baby garments to school," he said.

Norman Stenzel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johannes Stenzel of 135 Warren Avenue, Palatine, is one of the five students pictured here in a scene from the University of Dubuque play, "The Monkey's Paw," by W. W. Jacobs.

Washington's Teeth

That stern expression in portraits of George Washington, a constant sufferer from dental troubles, was not intentional. It was caused by heavy and misshaped false teeth, although they were then the best of their kind. They were made of rhinoceros horn, and sealing wax was used to simulate natural-appearing gums.

Ever wish you had $1000?

Stop wishing—here's how you can actually have it—easily and safely—in just 5 years!

Maybe you've always thought you couldn't save up big money—well, now's the time to change your mind. Saving for big goals is as easy as signing your name, when you join the Payroll Savings Plan.

Best of all, you do more than just save—you invest your money and make it grow. And the whole process is safe, easy—and automatic. Here's how it works:

You name an amount to your company's pay office—a few dollars or as much as you want. Then each week, before you get your pay, this sum is saved out. (That way you're never tempted to spend money you really want to save.) And as they're set aside, these amounts are constantly invested for you in United States Series E Savings Bonds.

Because Savings Bonds earn good interest—3% when held to maturity—they're soon worth more than the money you've invested in them. And how your savings mount up! Sign for as little as $3.75 a week and in 5 years you'll have over $1,000 cash! In 9 years, 8 months, you'll have $2,137!

So why not stop wishing and start saving today—in the Payroll Savings Plan? Or, if you're self-employed, invest in Savings Bonds regularly where you bank. Bonds are one of the world's best securities—as safe as America.

Want your interest paid as current income? Invest in 3% Series H.

United States Government Series H Bonds are new current income Bonds in denominations of $500 to $10,000. Redeemable at par after 6 months and on 30 days' notice. Mature in 9 years, 8 months and pay an average of 3% per annum if held to maturity. Interest paid semiannually by Treasury check. Series H may be purchased through any bank. Annual limit: $20,000.

If you want your interest as current income, ask your banker about 3% Series H Bonds that pay interest semiannually by Treasury check.

Choose your own savings goal

	If you want approximately
	$5,000	$10,000	$25,000
Each week for 9 years and 8 months, save.....	$3.80	$18.75	$46.00
Each week for 19 years and 8 months, save.....	$3.75	$7.50	$18.75

This chart shows only a few typical examples of savings goals and how to reach them through Payroll Savings. Remember, you can save any sum you wish, from a couple of dollars a payday up to as much as you want. The important thing is, start your Plan today!

Saving is simpler than you think—

with U. S. Savings Bonds on the Payroll Savings Plan!

About Your Health

Our emotions play an important role in our state of well-being, yet many persons overlook this as they seek relief for one physical symptom after another. Anxiety, tension and frustration and anger are four characteristic barriers to good physical and mental health, the educational committee of the Illinois state medical society observes.

These emotional factors, somewhat unconsciously, cause certain reactions to take place in the body, resulting in such physical symptoms as headaches, weakness, digestive disorders, and heart disturbances, such as palpitation. Some persons, while organically sound, because of certain attitudes and feelings, develop symptoms that can be traced to neurotic origin. And neurotic states are believed to stem from unacknowledged emotional conflict.

FOR EXAMPLE, are you anxious? Do you know why? You probably don't because your apprehension has no real basis. On the other hand, an actual threat, such as being confronted by a hold-up man, could cause a natural fear. The two emotions differ in that one is abstract, while the other is positive.

Excessive anxiety is the most direct and simple form of neurotic imbalance. The victim is in a state of mental unrest and lacks peace of mind. Physical symptoms are similar to those produced in fear. The heart may pound; digestion may be upset; there may be difficulty in breathing. There may be nausea and diarrhea, dizziness and a tremulous feeling. The zest for food is gone and the person is unable to sleep.

IN A SEVERE state of anxiety, the capacity to enjoy life disappears. Inasmuch as the real cause for the anxiety is a mental conflict which is unrecognized, the victim speculates that he must have some mysterious disease or that he is "losing his mind." What happens? These secondary fears increase the original anxiety and the person becomes obsessed, even to the point of being convinced that he is afflicted with some serious disease.

Feelings of resentment and frustration tend over a period of time to build up a state of anxiety. Jealousy has a motivating influence, as does envy, since these characteristics create an imbalance in reasoning. They form an obstacle which renders the person helpless to meet a given situation.

TO REASSURE a neurotically anxious person by proving to him that his fears are groundless is impossible. The physician's evidence of an organically sound body means nothing to the patient. He rejects the proof.

How can the overanxious person be helped? First by recognizing the challenge of hidden fear. Why is he resentful, jealous or envious? Why is he apprehensive without a basic reason?

First the person must be taught to understand himself by facing reality. An apprehensive state will not bring about a promotion, for example, but steady, constructive effort will. The thinking qualities of an anxious person are cluttered and the powers of concentration are impaired.

The anxious person will recover his normal state of well-being step by step, once he recognizes that his apprehension lacks basic cause.

Officially, Not Really

Slavery was abolished in the United States by the 13th amendment to the constitution in 1865.

Dee Fondy Aims For Return To .300 Average After Sore Hand In '54

Dee Fondy has no apologies, nor alibis, for his .285 batting average last year, but the big Californian is going to be disappointed — as will his Cub mates — if he doesn't reach the .300 circle again in the 1955 National league campaign.

The handsome first baseman was an established .300 hitter his first two seasons with the Cubs, leading the team in hitting with .309 in 1953 after reaching exactly .300 the previous year.

It appeared that Dee was heading for another fine year until June, last season. Then, sliding into second base at Cincinnati trying to break up a double play, Fondy jammed his left hand against shortstop Roy McMillan's knee. The hand was sprained badly, and although X-rays were negative, the hand remained swollen and didn't seem to return to normal. Up until the last month of the season, Fondy was batting with one hand. The left one, which was injured, and is his guide hand, flew off the bat with every swing.

WITH ONLY 25 games remaining, Dee was faced with a .266 average, the lowest of his entire career. His confidence had ebbed. His morale was low, and he wondered if his major league career was going to be a really short one despite so brilliant a start. But the hand suddenly began to feel good, and in the last 25 games Dee got 36 hits in 94 times at bat for a sensational .383 average, which brought his final mark to a more respectable .285. He hit safely in 21 of those games.

"The big thing about that spurt," says Dee, "is that it restored my confidence and I knew again that I could hit big league pitching." He laughs now, "I sure was a worried young man, though."

At that, there are many in the majors who wouldn't mind batting .285, and also, as Fondy did, steal 20 bases during the season.

Ela-Vernon High School To Sponsor Gymnastic Circus

Ela-Vernon High School—Lud .....

The Girls' Athletic association of Ela-Vernon high school will sponsor the Gamma Phi Gymnastic Circus this Saturday at 8 p.m. The Gamma Phi is an honorary gymnastic group at Illinois State Normal University which annually presents an all-student production of stunts, tumbling, aerial acts, clown numbers, and apparatus work. In addition to the 3 campus performances, the entire group will take 3 out of town trips. One of these trips will be to the gym of Ela-Vernon high school.

Gamma Phi was founded at ISNU in 1928 by Dr. C. E. Horton, now director of the division of health and physical education. It was at first an all men's organization, but in 1941 women were admitted to membership and have since taken an active part in the group. Dr. Arley F. Gillett, the present sponsor and coach and also an ex-member of the organization, took over the direction of the group in 1947. The circus has been presented on the campus every year since 1930 except for the war years and is an annual highlight of the campus entertainment program.

The 35-piece circus band, directed by Prof. Arden Vance, plays appropriate accompaniment for all of the acts and appears with the circus on all engagements.

Some of the acts which you can look forward to seeing are "Whirl of Death," web ballet, tumbling and balancing, juggling duet, trapeze thrills, limberback acrobatics, the Whirlos (roller skating duet), balance beam, swinging ladders, the Gilletts, ball and unicycle, parallel, trampoline, clowns, and foot revolve.

Tickets may be purchased at the high school office, the Dinner Bell on Rand road and Route 22 or from any G.A.A. member. (B5

The 51-voice concert choir of Northern Illinois state teachers college will appear at the Paddock school in Palatine Friday afternoon, March 25. The group is under the direction of Frank Blanning.

Following their performance at the Palatine school, the choir will appear on the Howard Miller shown on WBBM-TV, Friday evening. Tuesday, March 29, they will sing at the First Methodist church in Waukegan.

YES! Automobile Insurance Costs More Today . . . BUT--

—so does every single thing you buy. With 50,000,000 cars and trucks on the roads, more accidents happen. Cars are fancier and more costly to fix—wages for repair men have gone way up—hospital and medical fees are higher than ever—judgments in damage suits are unbelievably high. All of these factors mean higher premiums for automobile insurance. But even with recent rate increases, you still pay little if any more for automobile insurance than you did ten years ago! Insurance—even automobile insurance—is one of the few truly low priced services today.

MAC SAYS

— by G. A. McElroy

BASKETBALL IS DIFFERENT than most sports in many ways, but the most unusual is that the rules change every year. No sport has been the victim of more rules tinkering by the coaches associations and rules committees than the indoor round ball sport. This year the bonus free throw helped to set new free throwing records as well as scoring marks in general.

The year before if you missed the first throw you got an extra try. This year you got the extra throw if you made the first one.

Pinckneyville, which won the third place trophy the third straight year in the state tournament, was a team which usually was outscored in the close games from the field, but played such a fine ball control style of game that they were fouled more than their opponents and capitalized on their skill at the 15 foot line. Coaches who are successful have to adapt their play each year to the rules changes.

That is the reason the down court press defense so popular and effective a few years ago went out of existence except in the late stages of a losing game, and was replaced in so many cases by a zone defense.

A team fouls less playing a zone and more playing a press. With a greater penalty for fouling the style of play changes.

NOW THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION of Basketball Coaches has gone on record as favoring three new rules changes which may be good or bad according to style of play and personnel of your favorite team. They are advising there be just one free throw for fouls committed up to eight in each half of the game. Beyond eight fouls the opponents get two free throws. Of course this does not apply to players fouled in the act of shooting which has for years been two throws.

A change which will help defense is to allow the defense team in the end or basket position on both sides of the free throw line, making loss of the ball pretty certain on missed free throws.

A third rule change which may change the game more than the other two is one which would make a charging or blocking foul by the team on offense an out of bounds violation instead of a free throw foul. This will certainly encourage players on offense to attempt to drive around opponents to the basket if the cost in points for charging is eliminated. Likewise a good screening type of offense will be encouraged for if contact is called on a block it only results in loss of the ball. Whether these recommendations will go into effect is a question. Many think the bonus throw is here to stay, but the majority of coaches do not like it.

OLD MAN WEATHER has dictated when and if spring sports squads ever work outside. Snowfall Tuesday immediately squashed Bensenville sports plans, after baseball coach Tom Meneguin had asserted Monday, "we'll be outside Tuesday no matter what." Tuesday's snowfall answered the question.

Probably nowhere in this area is lack of sports facilities more evident than at Bensenville where occupancy of the new high school is still 5 months away.

We've heard of boys training in the halls and in the gyms, but at Bensenville anyone walking past any door takes his life in his hands as the Bisons cross the stage, run out 2 narrow doors past 3 immediate stairways, down 3 halls, then in the other end of the "gym." Practice sessions are staggered to make use of the diamond within the track, and to permit boys to participate in more than 1 spring sport.

AT HEIGHTS, TOO, boys have been working out indoors. The 2 gyms have provided more room, however. But that type of practice is evidently enough for some events. In the weights Cardinal coach Bill Beckman saw Jack Johnston toss the shot 51' 3¾" to win the event in Evanston Relays. Dennis Striegel finished second with 49' 5".

In the high jump Bill Palmer and Stan Norman made 6' and 5' 10", respectively

Those weight marks are always expected from "Beckman's boys." The high jump performances are particularly good considering the boys are both sophomores. Then down Hinsdale way we hear of a freshman pole vaulter who cleared 11'.

ONE OF THE FINEST sports events which annually comes to Chicago is the Daily News Relays to be held Saturday night at the Chicago Stadium. The finest in the nation compete in the various events on the program with the meet run in clocklike precision to give fans something doing every minute. Popularity of track meets from the standpoint of spectators is usually not high due to the way the meets drag out due to poor organization. The Daily News meet is an exception.

Pirates In 'A,' Cardinals In 'B' Class Events

Palatine will enter a full team in the annual Oak Park Relays Saturday afternoon and evening. This biggest indoor meet held in Illinois will attract over 40 schools and is divided into 3 classes for point distribution with a champion declared in each group.

Class "C" in which Palatine will compete is for schools under 700 while "B" class is from 700 to 1,500. The "A" division is for all those over 1,500, a class in which Arlington Heights is entered.

Relays are run in heats against time irrespective of classes but points and places are determined among the school entered from each class. The individual events are open competition and points won count for a team in their own class. Palatine has several good relay teams and has hopes of making a strong bid in the "C" division.

PALATINE Coach Welty has entered Jim Hess and John Dilks in the 50 yard dash; Dave Cornwell, Duane Gordon, and Jim Penning in the hurdles; Leonard Wiese in the mile run, Bob Kozy and Dave Nesset in the high jump; Dave Cornwell in the broad jump; Bob Fremd and Roy Burns in the pole vault; and Leonard Rohde and Bill Thompson in the shot put.

In the relays Welty expects to run Jim Hess, Alan Eck, Dave Cornwell and John Dilks in the 4 lap relay; Jim Hess, Alan Eck, Dick Hill, and Dave Cornwell in the 8 lap relay; Leonard Wiese, Bruce McClung, Steve Cornwell, and Roy Hahnfeldt in the 2 mile relay; and Steve Cornwell, Alan Eck, John Dilks and Bruce McClung in the sprint medley relay; Dick Wisner, Jim Eldridge, Tom Gordon, and John Gerling in the freshman relay.

ARLINGTON entries in the Oak Park meet Saturday include just 4 boys, a senior, junior and 2 sophomores.

Bill Palmer, who won the high jump in Evanston Relays Saturday with a 6' leap, will be accompanied by Stan Norman, who made 5' 10" at Evanston. Both boys are sophomores.

Jack Johnston, senior shot putter who copped the event at Evanston with a 51' 3¾" toss, will be entered at Oak Park, along with junior Dennis Striegel, who tossed the weight 49' 5".

PRELIMINARIES and finals of the shot are scheduled for the afternoon, starting at 2:45. High jump is both afternoon and evening affair, but whether Heights boys who make the finals will give up the Chicago Relays the same night remains to be seen.

Lettermen working out for co-coaches Russ Attis and Bill Beckman are Johnston, Wayne Mueller and Striegel in the weights, Harrison Kennicott and Dick Malcomson in the sprints, Palmer in high jump and hurdles, Griffith Pritchard in pole vault, Ray Hornbostel in 440 and 880, and John Sheppard in mile and half.

First varsity meet is scheduled for April 4 at Libertyville. In event the Wildcats' track is not in shape, the event will be transferred to Heights.

Cub Scout bowlers, 36 strong, pose for the cameraman before completing another season of competition. The Cubs are members of Pack 255 in Arlington Heights, and bowled on the Arlington Heights Bowling Lanes. Grade School wrestlers Take Honors In City Meet

A new crop of grade school wrestlers is being developed by Dick Mudge and Maurice Kellogg, 70-strong, with competition in the AAU meets in Chicago last week the conclusion of a 3-week program.

Mudge and Kellogg commandered their own cars to haul boys to and from their grade schools within the district of Arlington Heights high school. They agreed to run the program 3 weeks, expecting about 25 boys "to sign in, please."

INSTEAD, 70 boys reported, showing plenty of interest in the grappling sport, collegiate style. Instruction was given with matches following, and 17 boys selected to compete at 2 Chicago parks.

Here are the 17, including weight, school, and how they fared in competition:

Must Rebuild Card 9; Have 4 Vetrans

Four lettermen will provide the foundation for a complete rebuilding job of the Arlington Heights high school baseball team this year, a squad that finished second in the league last time.

These 4 seniors include Dick France at third, Dave Lynk at first, and Denny Maher and Gerald Sauter in the outfield. Opening game is scheduled for Monday, April 4, against Glenbard.

PITCHING will be the big problem, according to Coach Howard Lester. Four prospects for the mound position include sophomore Pat Brownell, who twirled for the freshmen last year, and juniors Bob Charles, Doug Winkelman and Alan Smeby.

Behind the plate 2 boys are being considered, including senior Stan Fletcher and junior Jack Ebert. Outfield prospects include sophomore Dan Vittum and junior Ron Ashley.

Infield candidates are seniors Jim Laughlin and Larry Fischer, and junior Jim Summers. Two transfers have also reported, including junior Don Butts from Tulsa, an infielder, and senior Ron Kremer from the east, a first basemen.

FIRST MEETING of baseball candidates was held Tuesday afternoon The pitchers and catchers have been working out a bit in the gym but real workouts will have to wait until spring weather.

Rest of the club will probably be juniors. Many of the boys have played Junior Legion baseball, a big help in high school circles.

41 Report For Frosh Track At Arlington

Twenty-six freshmen and 15 sophomore track hopefuls have reported to Coach John Ligon at Arlington Heights high school with initial meet for the team planned at home against Maine April 7.

Little is known of many of the boys, with outside workouts possible just 2 days to date. But here is a rundown of some of the events with some of the better prospects listed.

In the sprints sophomore Dick Fischer heads a group that includes 6 promising freshmen, including John Amann, Art Fisher, James Hall, Tom Kennicott, Jack Weber and Bob Lockwood.

THE DISTANCE runs include sophomore Bob Cagann in the half and Ashley Haase, a sophomore, in the quarter.

High jump includes sophomores Bill Palmer and Stan Norman, who have been doing very well, with Palmer also in the hurdles.

Freshman Ed Wilson is listed in the pole vault, with freshmen Bob Lockwood and Roger Farleigh expected to perform in the hurdles. Lockwood is also working out in high jump. Another hurdler looking acceptable to date is sophomore Warren Smith.

Calisthenics, hurdles and conditioning have taken up most of the time to date.

Officials To Meet

Among those attending the fifth annual meeting of northern officials association Saturday night will be Wally Grace and "Bus" Ormsbee of Arlington Hts. high school. Event will be held at Hank's restaurant, routes 41 and 120, starting at 7 p.m.

Palatine Nine Has 2 Lettermen Back; To Open At Niles

Coach Claude Bailey has only 2 regulars back for his Palatine high baseball team this spring but he has the most important one, his star pitcher Tom Hillesheim. The Pirate twirling ace had victories last year over Grayslake and Antioch, who tied for the championship, as well as Glenbrook, the third place team.

Aided by a season of Junior Legion ball last summer Hillesheim is expected to be one of the top moundsmen in the league. Palatine's only other regular is second baseman Dave Schutz.

George Peyer saw a lot of action at third base, and Joe Goddard and Bob Kozy got in a lot of time in the outfield, but otherwise Bailey will have to rely on boys up from the sophomore team. Of course the Palatine coach got a good line on his material through Legion ball last summer. Bob Hamilton, junior pitcher, is expected to get into a lot of games and he also handled Hillesheim's slants behind the plate as catcher last summer.

OTHER JUNIORS expected to be top flight performers are Bob Coates, who will play first base or catch, and Ron Stejskal who plays short stop. John Ellis will again handle sophomore and freshman boys who will have a schedule this year, playing the same days as the varsity but with locations reversed.

Palatine opens at Skokie against Niles township high in a non-league game Wednesday, April 6, during the Easter holidays, and then takes on Wauconda on Good Friday, April 8, at 2:00 p.m. in the league openers.

The frosh-soph team will be at home on the 8th with the varsity playing at Wauconda. Saturday, April 9, the frosh-soph will meet Grayslake on the home diamond. A 14 game conference schedule will find the 8 teams in the league playing every Tuesday and Friday.

Varsity Wrestlers To Dine At Arlington

Varsity wrestlers at Arlington Heights high school who recently completed the best record in history, will dine Saturday evening at the home of Coach Dick Mudge.

The boys will sit down to eat at 6 p.m., with presentation of awards and election of most valuable and captain also on the docket.

5 Lettermen On Track Squad At Bensenville

Five returning lettermen, and a new coach, that is the outlook for the Bensenville high school track squad this year with 2 seniors and 3 juniors heading a list of 45 thinclads.

John Trapp, for more than a quarter century the track coach at Bensenville, gave up the job a year ago to devote more time to other responsibilities at the school. Officially on the job this year for the first time, though he helped Trapp last season, is Coach Paul Henry, a man who also coached frosh-soph football last fall.

DICK D'HOOGE heads the 5 veterans, though only a junior. He set a new conference frosh-soph hurdle record last season runs in the dashes, throws the discus, is an all-'round man.

Tom Philiben, another junior, will compete in the dashes, broad jump and high jump. He broke the conference frosh-soph broad jump mark last year. Third junior, Ken Capodogli, competes in the weights.

Senior Ken Gengel is another letterman, competing in the pole vault. Senior Vic Reiser is marked for the dashes.

OTHER PROSPECTS include transfer Dick Driggett, a junior from Glenbard, who has run the dashes; Ray Taylor, sophomore, distance man; and Dale Duntemman, who ran in the relays last year, probably slated for middle distance this time.

About 45 boys have indicated an interest in track at Bensenville. No outside work has been possible yet with many unknowns undoubtedly on Henry's list but untested to date.

Bensenville To Open Play At Glenbrook Apr. 8

Coach Tom Meneguin is certain to build his Bensenville high school baseball team around 8 returning lettermen. With luck in pitching, Bensenville is going to be heard from in Northwest conference circles.

Seven senior, plus 1 junior, will provide the foundation for the Bison nine. On the mound will be lettermen Harold Tews and Ken Sirotzki, the latter serving the Du Page county school as pitcher, short stop and catcher last season.

AT FIRST are 2 veterans, Dale Stroud and Bob Misicka. Joe Masotti played short last year, is back again, as is Jerry Graumann, who played third but may be in the outfield this time. Clarence Young is the other senior letterman, patrolling the outfield.

Tom Clark, a junior, won a varsity letter at second as a sophomore, and is almost certain to play that spot this time.

Other juniors up from last season's frosh-sophs include Bob Heinrich behind the plate; Floyd Busse, a leftie who played in the outfield last year but may pitch this season; Lars Hendricksen, an infielder; and John Baumgartner, an outfielder. Busse, Baumgartner and Hendricksen had some varsity experience last year.

OTHER PROSPECTS who may come through include 3 junior outfielders, graduates of the frosh-sophs, Ken Cooper, Monte Forke and Bob Gulborg. Forke also pitched a bit last year, while Gulborg is rated a better than average fielder.

A need for adequate pitching is probably Coach Meneguin's biggest need. Baumgartner has plenty of stuff as a pitcher, but would rather play other positions. The complete infield of last season, with exception of first baseman Eric Kellet, is back.

First call was planned for Tuesday, though the weather intervened. About 35-40 boys were expected to report to Coach Meneguin. Opening game is scheduled for April 8 at Glenbrook.

With the Olympic games coming up in the fall of 1956 in Australia interest in our representation is mounting. We are told Russia will make it a runaway this year. That is all it takes for the competitive spirit of free America to respond to see this does not happen.

Daily News Relays, along with other big meets of the next year and a half, will determine whether we are prepared to beat Russia's government-subsidized so-called "amateur" track and field team.

SIX POINTS BEHIND and one second later a tie score. That is what happened in the last two minutes of the championship game of the state tournament Saturday night. West Rockford trailed 57-51 and it looked like Elgin was a near cinch to be state champ. A West Rockford player hit a field goal from 20 feet out and was fouled. The officials ruled he was fouled after he shot so he got the bonus throw instead of the single that goes with a foul when the basket is scored. Both throws were made for four points with time out, of course.

Elgin threw the ball in from out of bounds to midcourt where a player leaped high to get it. He came down hemmed in by West Rockford players and was charged with a foul as he tried to get away. The clock moved one second. West Rockford made both free throws and tied the count. That was a once in a lifetime basketball break and it cost Elgin the state title.

WE HAVE HEARD some criticism of our move to open the Palatine Relays "A" division to any interested schools. We have tried to limit the top for years, yet still move it up to keep Arlington Heights, Niles, and Leyden in the meet. Now that all three are up to the size of schools which have been excluded and will be, in two more years as big as any in the area, we feel the time is ripe to open up the competition.

We cannot see why Arlington should object to their West Suburban league members being included; nor should Niles as a member of the Suburban league object to competing with Waukegan, or Leyden in the South Suburban object to running against league members Bloom and Argo.

COACH DICK WELTY of the Palatine Pirates had a worried look for awhile after his conference champ 880 yard man was declared ineligible for the season but that is gone since Bruce McClung ran a 2:10.7 half in his first high school meet last week.

Welty thinks the fast moving McClung may break the Palatine school record before the season is over and be a real threat to top the Northwest mark and cop the conference gold medal.

McClung was a fine blocking back as a senior member of the Palatine football team which lost only to Glenbrook, 7-0, last fall. Welty now thinks his two mile relay team will push Mooseheart in the Palatine Relays. Mooseheart broke the record with a junior team last year.

THE GOLF TOURNAMENT sponsored annually by Paddock Publications sports department among first place teams of 8 twilight leagues has been tentatively set for the third Sunday in August . . . It has always been difficult for "Mr. Average Golfer" playing in these leagues to take a day off for golf, many times suffering a loss of 8 hours pay in the process.

Tourney promoters are having difficulty locating a course available for 1 hour's tee-off at noon on a Sunday . . . Official date and details are expected to be raised soon.

Glenbard's basketball prospect are looking up with the varsity's 18-8 mark the best in seven years, the frosh winning the West Chicago tourney, plus a 9-7 record, and the soph league champions with a 20-2 mark . . . The frosh-sophs took third in the Belvidere tournament . . . Faculty-senior game at LaGrange was slated for March 22.

Winning a cage letter at Ripon is Ron Prellberg of Arlington Heights, former high school sports writer for Paddock Publications . . . Another "Alumnus" of the sports section, Bob Frisk, by-lined many Sweet Sixteen stories in the Daily Illini this past week.

In case you didn't know, Hinsdale beat Riverside, 60-9, in that first state basketball tournament in 1908 . . . The Red Devils won the thing the following year . . . If you want unusual first names the Heights track squad has Harrison and Griffith, with last fall's cross country man, Lodiegard, not reporting . . . Then there's a Brian out for tennis . . . Final punch line is that of an Arlington boy with 9 girl cousins, all living within 4 miles of him, named Denise, Charlene, Kimberley, Johnine, Deborah, Greta, Lee, Jerre and Rebecca.

Six Matches To Date For Bison Golfers

Golf schedule at Bensenville high school now includes 6 matches with Palatine, Glenbrook and Reavis. Coach Lee Craine will have his charges working out at Mohawk Country club when weather permits, but knows nothing of his prospects to date.

The schedule:
April 18, Palatine, here.
April 21, Glenbrook, here.
April 27, Reavis, there.
May 4, Palatine, there.
May 26, Glenbrook, there.
May 31 Reavis, here.

Chicago Relays At Stadium This Saturday

Two-hundred and fifty of the greatest stars in track and field will participate Saturday (March 26) in the world's greatest indoor track meet.

Wes Santee, Harrison Dillard, Mal Whitfield, Horace Ashenfelter and the Rev. Robert Richards are among the galaxy of stars who will take to the boards in the 19th annual Chicago Daily News relays.

One of the feature events of the Relays is the Bankers mile. This year, defending champion Wes Santee will be out for his second straight win. Others in the field will be Art Dalzell, from Lawrence, Kan.; Phil Coleman from the University of Chicago Track club; Bill Squires from the University of Notre Dame, and Charles Jones, from Iowa City, Ia.

IN THE FRANK HILL 600-yard run, world indoor record holder and Daily News relays defending champion Mal Whitfield, of the Los Angeles athletic club, will face the three greatest middle-distance runners in the country. They are Kevan Gosper, Big Ten 600 yard-record holder from Michigan State college, East Lansing, Mich.; John Barnes from Chanute Field Rantoul, and Joe Gaffney of the Shanahan Catholic club, Philadelphia, Penna.

World indoor record holder Horace Ashenfelter, of the New York Athletic club, will be challenged in the two-mile run by Daily News champion Fred Wilt ,also of the New York Athletic club. In the 1954 relays, Wilt barely beat Ashenfelter in the most dramatic finish of the program. Others competing in this year's two mile are Karl Jonsson of the University of Illinois; Kikuo Moriya of Wheaton college, Wheaton, Ill.; Lowell Zellers of Bloomington, Ind., and Selwyn Jones of East Lansing.

3 Palatine Cage Teams Won 24, Lost 37 In Past Season

Palatine high basketball teams won 24 and lost 37 games during the season just recently completed. The varsity coached by Gene Moylan had a 14-9 record with a 11-3 second place finish in the Northwest conference. Art Zimmer handled a frosh-soph team, on which 4 freshmen won letters, and compiled a 6-16 record. All 6 victories were in conference games. The freshmen, coached by Charley Feutz, won 4 games while dropping 12 decisions.

Only 4 players were in enough varsity quarters to qualify for letters at Palatine this year as Coach Moylan tried all season to find a capable fifth man and finally moved up Roy Hahnfeldt, sophomore center.

Alan Eck, Dave Schutz, Dave Nesset, and John Goetz played in every quarter of the season's games. Eck scored 327, Schutz 320, Nesset 288, and Goetz 286 points. The team hit 40.1% of their field goal attempts for the season. Among the "big four" the shooting percentages were Schutz 48.3%, Eck 39.7%, Goetz 39.5%, and Nesset 38.0%. Goetz proved to be the best free thrower sinking 2/3 of his shots for 66.67%. Way down the line in scoring from the 286 scored by Goetz was Hahnfeldt 38, Lehmann 37, Kolze 20, and Trenchard 17.

Bob Kozy, Dave Cornwell, and Jack Mason were awarded letters on a senior service basis as all 3 were members of high school basketball squads all 4 years.

On Track Squad At St. Joseph

Frank J. Pischke, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Pischke of 1301 Kensington, Arlington Heights, is a member of the St. Joseph's college varsity track squad.

Pischke, a freshman engineering student at St. Joseph's, is a 1954 graduate of St. George high school, Evanston, where he was a member of the track and swimming squads.

A rugged eight-meet schedule faces Coach Virgil Robbins' Pumas who will attempt to improve on last year's 5th place finish in the Indiana collegiate conference.

Learn Fundamentals

Fundamentals have been the main order of business for Bensenville high school frosh-soph baseballers, with instruction of same the responsibility of Coach Glen Van Proyan. Meetings last week stressed the finer points of how to cover a base, how to hold a bat, etc.

First workout of the team was slated for this week until the weather took over. Forty boys have reported to Coach Van Proyan. Season opener is set for April 8 at Bensenville against Glenbrook.

'Nothing To Report'

"Nothing to report" was the only answer given by Arlington Heights high school golf coach Curtis Larsen to questions proffered by this reporter. Local golfers are swinging outside on the practice field much of the time, plus home workouts "in the rifle range," which has yet to report its first rifle. Opening meet is at home against Waukegan April 18.

Additional baseball games have been added at Arlington Heights high school, according to athletic director Wally Grace. Varsity will entertain Leyden April 22, with the frosh-sophs traveling to Franklin Park at the same time.

Intercity Bouts At Stadium March 31

Members of Chicago intercity Golden Gloves team assembled at Midwest hotel Sunday to commence training for its match with New York in the Stadium March 31. Coach Johnny Behr has ordered road work in the morning and a sparring drill in the afternoon. Boxers will be assigned their rooms by Bob Howard, veteran Chicago team handler.

This will be the 28th annual meeting between the two cities with Chicago winning 14 years, New York six and seven ending in draws. New York defeated Chicago, 5 to 3, last year for the first time since 1945. During this span Chicago won four times and fought to four draws.

THE MIDDLEWEIGHT bout promises to be one of the most thrilling ever staged between the two rivals. New York is confident that its champion, Rudolph Corney is equal to the task of disposing of Chicago's title bearer, Jesse Bowdry. Chicago fans dispute this fact, especially after the manner in which Bowdry eliminated Arthur Glass znd Nathaniel Ellison in the semi-finals and finals respectively. Bowdry is 17 years old and scored five straight decisions in his march to the title.

Corney is 23 years old, married and the father of three children. Last year Rudy won the New York 160 pound Sub-Novice title. His 1955 Golden Gloves record is two decisions and five knockouts.

ANOTHER INTERESTING bout may develop between the two flyweights, Tommy Reynolds of Chicago and Jose Regores of New York. Regores represented Havana in the New York tournament. Last year he was the national champion of Cuba and this year has taken the first step toward retaining that title by winning the Havana crown. He is 19 years old and his Golden Gloves record is three decisions and two knockouts.

Reynolds is a 17 year old high school student in St. Louis. He was the St. Louis 1954 novice champion. His brother Joe, was a member of the 1952 Chicago Intercity team and the 1952 Olympic squad. Tommy won his champion via three decisions and a knockout over Jess Herrera, world-wide service champion in 1952, 1953, and 1954.

Palatine 9th In Naperville Relays

Palatine placed ninth among 15 schools in the 20th Annual Naperville indoor relays held Friday night at Werner field house, North Central college. The meet was won by Bloom of Chicago Heights with 47 3-7 points followed by LaGrange 37 6-11, York 33 1-22, East Aurora 29 6-11, Hinsdale 18 6-11, Naperville 15 1-11, Riverside-Brookfield 15, Glenbard 12 6-11, Palatine 9-6-11, Wheaton 7, Joilet 5, Mooseheart 4, Leyden 2, Reavis 2, and Serena 6-11.

Leonard Rohde took fifth in the shot for Palatine with a heave of 45'7 ¾". Bob Kozy tied with nine others for third in the high jump at five feet eight inches. Palatine took fourth in the sprint medley with Steve Cornwell running three laps, Alan Eck and Jim Hess running two laps, and Bruce McClung running five laps.

A FIFTH was taken in the eight lap relay with the runners Alan Eck, Jim Hess, Dick Hill, and Dave Cornwell. Leonard Wiese ran in the two mile relay so his sixth in the mile run was no indication of his ability in early season. Jim Hess was just out of the points in the 60 yard dash as was the two mile relay team with sixth place finishes.

Saturday Palatine will compete in the Oak Park Relays where there will be "A", "B", and "C" classes in some of the relays and championships in each class. Palatine will be in class "C" and with the experience and training received through competing in four prior indoor meets might make a strong bid in their class of competition.

Schalk Talk

As George Gobel might put it, they don't make catchers like that no more. He would be talking about Ray Schalk of the White Sox, recently elected to the Hall of Fame.

According to The Sporting News, Schalk in one year stole more bases than all of the major league catchers did last year. He stole 30 in 1916. Last year, the entire corps of 56 catchers in the majors stole a combined total of only 19.

Redwings To Open Home Season Against Kolski Boosters May 8

Redwing manager, Bud Blumenthal, has promised to bring only the best teams out to Arlington Heights to play the Redwings. Opening day, May 8, the visiting team will be none other than the Kolski Boosters, who last year won the Illinois state semi-pro championship and came close to winning the national title at Wichita .

The Kolski team will be virtually the same as last year's champions except they have improved somewhat by adding a few new faces. Kolski manager Bob Hoffman hopes to go all the way this year and intends to start the season with a win over the Redwings. He knows his team pretty well because 3 of his brothers (he has 9) and a cousin are regular starters. Incidentally, the Kolskis also won the Greater Midwest Chicago semi-pro league championship last year.

Word is spreading around the league the Redwings are loaded this year. Anyone watching them work out last weekend would surely get that impression. Two lengthy workouts were held despite the cold weather Saturday and Sunday afternoons. There is abaility and experience at every position in the lineup. Reserve strength is surprising and many extra games will have to be booked to keep such capable men from joining other teams. Three mid-week night games are already booked and more are on tap.

Any inquiries regarding playing, sponsoring, or otherwise assisting in the program are welcome and should be made to Bud Blumenthal 8256 Kilpatrick ave., Skokie—telephone Orchard 3-1356.

Meeting At Grant

Northwest conference athletic directors meeting was held at Grant high school Monday night. The principals and superintendents met at Palatine March 9.

Maine Runs Away With Triangular

Maine township ran away with a triangular indoor meet with Arlington Heights and Palatine last week Tuesday afternoon scoring 59¼ points in the varsity division and 72 in a frosh-soph dual with Palatine, who got 15 points while Arlington entered only the shot put and got four. Palatine beat Arlington Heights, 32 to 24½, in varsity competition.

Maine's pole vaulting showed rare early form as Kessler and Ektrom vaulted 11 feet to tie in the varsity section and Laser went 11 feet 6 inches to cop the frosh-soph. Palatine's Leonard Wiese ran a 4.51.6 mile, very good time, to take his pet event and Jim Hess tied Herman of Maine in the 50 yard dash for Palatine's first places.

ARLINGTON'S victories were by Bill Palmer who copped the high jump at 5'8¼", and Dennis Striegal, who took the shot with a fine mark of 48'8½". Maine won all the frosh-soph first places.

Dave Cornwell took seconds in both hurdles, and a fourth in the broad jump to lead Palatine's scoring. Alan Eck took second in the 440 and Bob Kozy and Dave Nesset tied for second in the high jump for other Palatine second places. Bruce McClung, running his first competitive 880 took third in 2:10.7, excellent time.

Bensenville Freshman Cagers End 13-2 Season

by BILL RIPPERGER

Bensenville's frosh ended an excellent cage season by copping the Northwest Suburban conference title. The young Bisons also boast a 13 to 2 mark, 10 conference, 2 practice and 3 tournament games.

Helping gain this outstanding record were Chuck Christiansen, 6'3" center, and forward Bob Meyer. Bob was tops in scoring with 236 points, 93 baskets and 50 free throw. He also hit 30 tallies in 1 game to lead the freshmen in most points scored in an individual game.

CHUCK CHRISTIANSEN'S rebounding, plus his scoring, were very effective in helping the frosh's campaign. He notched 61 field goals and 39 charity throws for a total of 161 markers. Chuck's scoring ability was particularly noticeable in the tourney games as he averaged 17 points per night.

Dove Helms, Bison playmaker, should also receive some due credit, for his excellent ball handling proved a valuable asset to the Northwest Suburban champs. He tallied 77 markers while Terry Biefeld with his deadly jumpshot netted himself 74 points.

THE TEAM averaged 43.8 points a game with 60 tallies high individual game mark, scored against Palatine. Twenty-five baskets were tops for 1 game, while 19 free throws were high in that department. The 25 field goals were scored in B'ville's 60 point scoring spree while the 19 charity throws came about in the first tournament game against Grant.

As far as losses are concerned the Jr. Bisons dropped 2, the first and last games of the regular conference season. These losses were credited to Glenbrook and Grant. In the Grant game only 1 point separated the 2 squads.

Bensenville frosh made 261 field goals, 134 of 302 free throws, for 657 points, and committed 169 fouls.

Set April 7 As Illinois Swine Growers' Day

Thursday, April 7 is the day for local swine growers to focus their attention on the University of Illinois at Urbana, says Assistant Farm Adviser John Bicket. That's the date selected for the annual Illinois Swine Growers' day.

Swine specialists at the college of agriculture will give reports on many of the research projects of cutting costs in feeding bred sows and gilts, a summary of early weaning and palatability trials and comparison of pig starter rations.

OTHER WORK that will be presented include results of a experiment, and a comparison of free-choice and complete rations on pasture and drylot.

A commercial swine producer from Streater, Wilbert N. Stevenson, and a swine breeding specialist, J. A. Whatley, Jr., of the animal husbandry department of Oklahoma A. & M. college, Stillwater, Oklahoma, will appear as feature speakers.

Visitors will have a chance to tour the swine farm and observe feeding and management practices in use, says Bicket. Also swine equipment and exhibits have been planned as added attractions.

State Farmers Get $6 Million From Corn

Illinois farmers last year produced more than $5.8 million worth of sweet corn.

That was the value of the approximately 240 thousand tons of corn grown in the state during the year for sale on the fresh market and to canners and freezers, explained M. P. Cortilet, Central division vice president of the American Can Company. He added that about 220 thousand tons were sold to processors while 20 thousand tons were disposed of on the fresh market.

Illinois farmers in 1954 grew about 71 thousand acres of sweet corn, Cortilet stated.

Welding On Farm TV

Farmers who study welding and farm shop work in night school will be featured guests on the "Farmtown, USA" television show Sunday, March 27.

With spring field work under way, Illinois farmers must keep their machinery in top condition. Many of them are turning to adult vocational agriculture education to help them in maintenance and repair work.

That's the subject to be covered by George Menard, "Farmtown" master of ceremonies and his five guests.

Guernsey Sire

Joseph L. Raynor, Waukesha, Wis., has just purchased the young Guernsey sire, Riverdale Wee Bonnie's Hector, from Buren R. Anderson & Son, Palatine, according to the American Guernsey cattle club.

This richly bred young bull is out of the high-producing cow, Riverdale's May Wee Bonnie, that has a production record of 12,772 pounds of milk and 627 pounds of fat, made on two times daily milking for 365 days in the Herd Improvement Register. He is sired by Riverdale Nan's Hector.

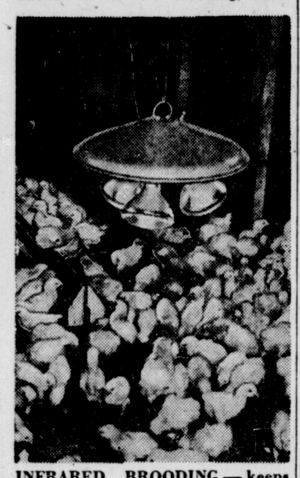
More Milk

Dairymen at the University of Illinois say that in a recent test cows in good condition gave 29 per cent more milk after calving than cows that were not in good condition when they calved.

Infrared Brooders Help Farmers Obtain Economies in Production

By IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau

Profit in today's poultry and egg industry depends largely on economies in production. Since the introduction of infrared brooding, farmers and poultry specialists have found that the use of this modern method shows an appreciable saving in labor, plus a substantial reduction in chick mortality. They base their calculations on the following important factors:



INFRARED BROODING — keeps chicks in view; reduces mortality rate.

Labor Saving Features—no floor-type brooders to service; electricity provides light as well as radiant heat, the latter absorbed by chicks for maximum comfort; feed and water containers are quickly and easily refilled; water will not freeze in heated areas; chicks always are in full view so abnormalities may be detected instantly and those affected culled without delay; infrared brooders keep litter dry and comfortable, so replacement is necessary less frequently.

Profit Features — lower mortality rate; weaker chicks can bask in the warmer areas and stronger chicks around the edges of the heat pattern, thus giving the weaker chicks a better than average chance of survival; infrared heat promotes healthier growth through faster feathering and stimulation of appetites; pullets usually begin laying two to three weeks earlier than those brooded by other methods, and birds are readied for market earlier when prices are normally higher than at other times.

Infrared brooders are available in single, three, four and six-lamp types. They are provided with convenient means for suspension and are factory wired, including cord and plug. The brooders may be purchased with or without automatic controls, as well as with or without guards to protect lamps against accidental impact.

Single lamp brooders will accommodate from 80 to 100 chicks; three-lamp types, 250 chicks; four-lamp brooders, 300 to 350 chicks, and six lamp brooders, 500 chicks. Costs of operation vary, but run from 1½ to 2 cents per chick over the brooding period.

DOWN ON THE FARM

with Your Farm Adviser
CARL F. MEES

A group of vegetable growers met with us Wednesday to discuss the possibility of setting up a vegetable marketing cooperative. With the changing of times and conditions, vegetable growers realize that they must keep up with the marketing activities and give the consumer, who is usually the housewife, the kind of vegetables she wants in the kind of packages she wants them in.

A fine discussion came from this group of men. However in order to proceed further with the project, we deemed it desirable to discuss this with a larger group of men and get more vegetable acreage represented.

Monday, March 28, at 8 p.m. at the Farm Bureau building, Arlington Heights, we plan to discuss the subject further. Any vegetable farmer interested in setting up a marketing cooperative, which include, packing, grading and marketing of vegetables is urged to attend this meeting.

THE YOUTH WORK in the county is taken care of by assistant Farm Advisers Bicket and Whiteside, but I cannot help but throw in a comment occasionally. This is what I heard recently. The workers in both ends of the county at a "kick-off" meeting recently set up goals of 600 agriculture 4-H members in 1955.

I overheard Harold Bergman, leader of the Palatine 4-H club tell John Bicket that he lacked only one having as many as he said he would in his 4-H club. I also heard Roy Hecht tell Bicket that George Klein in Hanover township had agreed to lead a club in his area and that his enrollment should be between 20 and 30. It looks like the workers were really in earnest when they said they were going to do the job. Maybe next week we'll have more reports. Congratulations to all of you so far who have been working on the project.

CHILDREN in the Barrington schools will have a chance to decide for themselves whether they want to drink one third quarts of milk or ½ pints. As soon as details can be worked out the project will be started throughout the entire school system. One half of the containers will be ½ pints and the other half one third quarts. Children will have their choice of containers. The price will be the same. When I explained the program to Superintendent Frank Thomas, he said immediately "sure we want to do that. I'd like to know myself how they will react."

We hope we'll have the answer before too long Supt Thomas. Thank you and your school system for your fine support. Before I left the school Supt Thomas being raised on a farm told me about his garden. From what he told me, he is a splendid gardner. He grew a sunflower that was 18 feet tall and really had a big head on it. That's a good record Frank. Congratulations.

Dr. Metcalf, principal of Bloom township high school, Chicago Heights is also interested in trying the program if certain details can be worked out.

We hope in the near future to be able to set up the program in the Proviso high school where Supt. LeRoy Knoeppel is located. Each school presents a different problem. I am grateful for the fine support the different superintendents have given the project.

If the results of the experiment are as gratifying as those obtained so far in Franklin Elementary school and Wells high we are reasonably sure schools will want to supply one third quarts. Franklin Elementary school the 1st week increased its milk consumption nearly 70 per cent.

IAA Tells Why It's Against Rigid, High Price Supports

A return to rigid, high price supports for basic farm crops, as proposed in a house bill to be debated next week, would renew and prolong the troubles facing agriculture today, according to Otto Steffey, president of the Illinois agricultural association.

"The detrimental effects of such a bill on American agriculture are obvious," Steffey says. "Passage would mean further increased production, declining markets, and greater and greater surpluses."

The IAA is the state-wide Farm Bureau organization with more than 202,000 members.

STEFFEY POINTS OUT the bill before Congress, which sets 90 per cent supports on basic commodities, is essentially "the same program which was employed during the years 1947-54, a period in which agricultural prices declined by 25 per cent.

"And it's the same program which was in effect between 1951 and 1954 —a period in which the U.S. lost almost 25 per cent of its world market for farm products," he says.

Steffey adds that the current proposal contains the same program which led to the accumulation of 7.1 billion dollars worth of farm surpluses in government storage.

THE BILL to be debated in the House next week reverse provisions of the agricultural act of 1954, supported by farm bureau, which allows support levels for the basic commodities to be set within the range of 82½ to 90 per cent of parity in 1955.

The 1954 legislation allows an even wider range, 75 to 90 per cent of parity, after January 1, 1956. The support level would be pegged within this range, depending on supply-demand situations.

The crops affected by the high support proposal include cotton, wheat, corn, rice and peanuts. Tobacco, the sixth basic commodity, is already under such a program.

Need Borax

Thirty pounds of borax to the acre will be enough for alfalfa that shows signs of boron deficiency.

Clay Play Board

Youngsters love to play with clay. Wise mothers and teachers have a suitable place so the clay won't get on a table, rug or floor. A clay board may be made of 1 by 2-inch pine forming a rectangular framework 9 by 12 inches. Cover it with Masonite ⅛" tempered Presdwood, fastened with brads. The smooth, splinter-free surface won't hurt fingers and is easily cleaned.

Fresh Water

Give farm animals all the clean, fresh water they will drink.

Australia Booms With Immigrants, Cars, High Wages - 'The New America'

by BILL DILLINGHAM

Australia is quickly earning the name "The new America." Wages are high, industry is booming, new cars crowd the roads, immigrants are coming in from all over the world and money is flowing freely. This is the "silk shirt era" for Australians.

American influence is strikingly apparent in this buzzing atmosphere. Juke boxes are in most of the cafes, zoot-suiters (called "bogies" here) are in all of the larger cities, the term "dollar" is used in shopping (although officially the currency is called pounds and shillings), and the English accent and vocabulary is being replaced by "American." (Lots of people won't say "petrol" anymore; the stuff is gasoline!) Besides that, Americans find themselves the object of a big welcome when they reach Australia, while English people openly wonder about being liked.

THE GOVERNMENT is pressing desperately for foreigners to come and settle. Australia is a land with a small population compared to that of its Oriental neighbors. It is one of the few outposts of western people and western thinking in Asia. To strengthen its position, the government is offering ship's passage almost free to anybody who will come and settle.

The exception to this "open door" policy, however, restricts entry to people of Oriental origin. Australians claim that they are following a necessary policy of self-preservation. Being so close to the overcrowded and poverty afflicted areas of Asia, they feel that Australia itself would soon be in a similar condition if this restriction were not enforced.

IT IS AN HISTORICAL fact, one which the people here unashamedly admit, that Australia was formerly the dumping ground for convicts of English prisons. Although the Australians of today are a very honest people (it's frequent to leave one's door unlocked day and night), a few of these unconservative traditions from the earlier settlers still remain. On a Saturday night, for instance, the yearning for rough-house play overcomes many an Aussie. "Give 'em a bunch of fives, Tommy" (five fingers — a punch).

One characteristic of this "new America" is speed. The struggle with time has crept into just about every corner of Australian life. Although most of these native people refuse to enter city life or to help in the race to build up Australia, the speed factor has invaded their primitive lives. A good example of this is seen when the bush aborigine performs the simple job of making fire. Conforming to the new fashion, by rubbing two sticks together he has a flame going within forty seconds.!

At DeKalb

Four national social sororities at Northern Illinois State Teachers College have named their spring pledge classes.

"THE MIKADO"

Cherry blossoms and a view of a volcano-topped mountain, along with beautiful costuming and effective make-up transported the audience of "The Mikado" from the Prospect Heights school to a small village in Japan at the 3 performances, March 19 and 20.

The dramatic action, as well as the singing of the Gilbert and Sullivan numbers, was well performed under the direction of Fedor Kabalin and the orchestra added importance as well as effect to the presentation. Mrs. Phyllis Wilson accompanied on the piano. Most of the rest of the orchestra members were volunteer young performers who had had high school experience playing together.

Into the midst of a group of Japanese men with dark slanting eyebrows, typical little black hats and wonderfully long queues, came Nanki-Poo, son of the Mikado, disguised as a musician. The first song of Nanki-Poo, played by Robert Parsons in the first 2 performances and by Oliver Goldsmith in the third, was the well-known "A Wand'ring Minstrel I," which set the action of the story. The men's chorus gave fine support to each romantic lead in this song.

Pooh-Bah, (played by Robert Arnold and Richard Hurlburt) proved superb in his extreme superiority and Pish-Tush (Wayne Mitchell) added the true dignity of a noble lord to the group.

Ko-Ko (Bob Randolph) soon came on stage. Newly-appointed Lord High Executioner who can't even kill a fly, Ko-Ko was well played by Randolph according to his audience reaction.

When the girls entered they were true "Japanese maids" with their lavish raven hairdresses, colorful kimonas, and fluttering fans. Yum-Yum (June Christofferson and Elaine Rittenhouse) was the delightfully portrayed heroine of the love story and the other 2 little maids, Pitti-Sing (Betty Randolph and Gloria Chyrchel) and Peep-Bo (Kathleen Oescan) added color and charm with their singing and acting

The dramatic entrance of Katisha, the ancient and eager bride chosen for Nanki-Poo by the Mikado, completely chilled the happy throng. Katisha (Marguerite Dietrich and Vera Valentine) was well depicted in this scene as a frightening old woman intent on despoiling the course of young love. The orchestra was excellent in assisting to cast a spell of doom and the tumult of the chorus was powerful.

With the entrance of the Mikado (George Oescan) in the second act, all the main characters had been introduced and Orescan continued with his costumes, actions and singing the high level of characterization of the opera's cast. Members of the audience who had come to look at friends or relatives were so carried away with the story that they were experiencing the feelings of the characters as Gilbert and Sullivan must have meant them to be. Their applause at each performance justified the 4 months of arduous work put in by the 50 members of the cast and chorus, as well as of the other people involved.

This production was presented for the benefit of the music departments of the Prospect Heights public school and the Community church. Assistant directors were Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Christofferson.

Favorites For Flavor

Two delicious desserts, 1 simple to prepare and the other more complicated, are being shared with us by Mrs. John H. Dowling of Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Dowling received the recipe for Date and Nut Torte from a Swedish friend. Easy to make, this torte is rich, chewy and moist. Cut in squares, it is topped with whipped cream or ice cream.

The second recipe, Angel Custard Cake, is a very special and elegant dessert. Although this cake involves a good bit of preparation, it can be made the day before it is to be served and stored in the refrigerator.

This dessert consists of a chocolate angel food cake frosted with a luscious, creamy custard and garnished with strawberries.

Part of the custard made for the icing is reserved for use as a sauce and diluted with a little milk. When Mrs. Dowling serves the cake, she spoons some of the sauce over each slice.

This intriguing and unusual dessert is truly a gourmet's delight!

The Dowlings live at 348 Bristol lane. They have 3 children, John, 7½, Kim, 4½, and Geoffrey, 2½.

Mrs. Dowling is a member of the Evening Guild of St. John Episcopal church and Kappa Kappa Gamma Alumnae club.

Date and Nut Torte

3 eggs
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 cup nutmeats, cut in pieces
1 cup dates, cut in pieces
1 cup toasted bread crumbs (about 3 slices)

Beat eggs until thick. Add sugar and baking powder and fold in remaining ingredients.

Bake in greased, 8 by 8 inch pan, in 300 degree oven for 30 minutes. (Do not over-bake. Torte should be moist and chewy).

Serve topped with whipped cream or ice cream.

Angel Custard Cake

1 chocolate angel food cake

Custard:

1½ cups milk
5 egg yolks
3/4 cup sugar
Pinch of salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 tablespoon gelatin (1 envelope)
2 tablespoons cold water
½ pint whipping cream

Scald milk in double boiler. Beat egg yolks until thick; add sugar and salt. Then add slowly to milk. Cook until custard coats a spoon.

Dissolve gelatin in cold water and place cup in hot water. Add to custard cool. Add vanilla.

Before custard sets, whip cream and fold into custard. If custard is too thick or lumpy, stir vigorously before folding in whipping cream. Place in refrigerator.

Ice cake with custard and refrigerate.

Before serving, dilute remaining custard with a little milk to make a thick sauce to spoon over slices of cake.

Decorate cake with halves of strawberries or Bing cherries, using a half on the side and on top of each slice of cake.

Ring cake plate with strawberries and serve.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERA LEE

Q. When is the double card for man and wife in good use?

A. It is sent with wedding presents, with flowers to a funeral, with gifts to high school or college graduates, or with any other gift that comes from both. It is, of course used also for formal visits.

Q. Is it absolutely necessary to send a wedding present when one has declined an invitation to the reception?

A. This would be expected of you only if you were very intimate friends with the bride, the bridegroom, or their families. Otherwise, it is not necessary.

Q. If a man brings a gift when calling on a girl, should she open it at once, or lay it aside until he has gone?

A. She would show an extreme lack of breeding and manners if she laid it aside. She should open it immediately.

Q. Is it proper for a divorcee marrying a man who has never been previously married, to wear a bridal dress and veil?

A. This is out of the question for any but a maiden bride. The divorcee may, however, properly wear an all-white dress and hat and she may have one attendant and a floral decoration of the chancel.

The latest in spring and summer apparel will be presented by Carson Pirie Scott & Co., modeled by their own famous models. Several club members and children will assist in the modeling. As a special feature there will be a preview of "what's new" in the children's fashion world.

United Airlines will furnish the background for the show and George Fanelli and his trio will set the tempo.

Some of the awards include a $50 French room hat by Mr. Arnold, a sports ensemble, 2 Judy Bond blouses, a breakfast coat, 2 pairs of shoes by "oomphies" to be selected by the winner, French perfume and cosmetics.

During the intermission, the audience will be entertained by the Junior Woman's club glee club and a Russian Sable scarf valued at $300 will be awarded. Refreshments will also be served.

Proceeds from the presentation will be used for philanthropic work of the club. Tickets may be purchased from club members or secured at the door.

'Capped' March 11

MISS JOY LETH

Miss Joy Leth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leth, 503 S. Evergreen, Arlington Heights, was "capped" at ceremonies held March 11 at Chicago Wesley Memorial hospital. Miss Leth, a graduate of Arlington Heights township high school, is now a freshman student at the hospital, which is affiliated with Northwestern medical school.

Jean Hodgson Is Bride Of Victor Bittner Jr.

Baskets of white chrysanthemums, snapdragons and gladioli, lighted tapers, and palms formed the setting for the wedding of Miss Jean Elizabeth Hodgson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Hodgson of Lincoln, Ill. and Victor F. Bittner Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor F. Bittner, 300 Milburn ave., Mount Prospect. The nuptials were held February 26 at First Presbyterian church in Lincoln at 3 p.m. with the Rev. John T. Burns officiating at the double ring ceremony.

Miss Jeanne Littleton sang "Because," "The Lord's Prayer" and "Through the Years" accompanied at the organ by Mrs. David N. Hanger. Entering the church with her father, the bride wore a white chantilly lace gown fashioned with a boat neckline and a hooped skirt made with a short train. The veil was attached to a seed pearl-trimmed skull cap. A strand of pearls was her only jewelry and she carried a white Bible with camellias and lilies of the valley and from which hung loops of satin cording.

Miss Janice Johnson of Chicago was maid of honor and Miss Margaret Maher and Miss Norma Walker of Lincoln were bridesmaids and all wore gowns of powder blue net with lace bodices, and full skirts gathered to long torso waistlines. Each wore a coronet of small spring flowers and carried baskets filled with daffodils, iris and daisies.

Both Mrs. Hodgson and Mrs Bittner received in lilac pink dresses with matching accessories and corsages of orchids. William Zibart of Louisville, Ky., fraternity brother of the groom, served as best man. Donald Schaefer, cousin of the groom of Wawatosa, Wis., served as usher. Other ushers were Robert Hodgson, brother of the bride of Lincoln, Robert Simon of Wilmette and Richard Maxwell of Evanston. The latter 2 were also classmates and fraternity brothers of the groom.

A reception for 400 was held in the church parlors after which the couple left by plane for a honeymoon trip to Europe. After April 1 they will be at home at 6252 S. Whipple st., Chicago.

The bride attended Knox college, graduated from the University of Illinois and was a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority and was employed as a stewardess for the Trans-World Airlines. The groom is a graduate of Arlington Heights high school and Northwestern university where he was associated with the Kappa Sigma fraternity. At present he is employed by Swift and co.

The bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. J. Collins, of Lincoln, her paternal grandmother, Mrs. C. Hodgson of Tremont, Ill., and her great-grandmother, who is 91 years old, Mrs. E. Slack also of Tremont, were present for the wedding. Also in attendance at the wedding were a large number of friends from Oak Park and Mount Prospect areas. Following the reception, the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bittner, were hosts to their friends and relatives for dinner at the Hotel Lincoln in Lincoln.

Pan-Hellenic Group To Hold Senior Girl Tea

Senior girls at Arlington and Palatine high schools, and their mothers, will be guests of the Pan-Hellenic alumnae group serving the 2 high school districts Tuesday afternoon. President of the group, Mrs. Clifford H. Cooper of Mt. Prospect, has announced plans for a coke party to be held in the cafeteria of Arlington Heights high school immediately after the close of the school day.

Organized by a small number of sorority women in this area 3 years ago, the project has grown from a discussion group with a few seniors meeting in a study hall, to include both high schools.

In charge of arrangements is Mrs. Paul J. Moore, Arlington Heights. Mrs. Wesley D. Kasl will talk to the girls, outlining the history of sororities, their purpose, and the mechanics of rushing. This will be followed by a question and answer period.

Senior girls who expect to attend have been asked to turn in their reservations to Mrs. Hazel Stewart and Miss Mae Gibbs, deans of girls at Arlington and Palatine high schools.

The Pan-Hellenic group is non-social, existing only for purposes of supplying information and assistance to the high school girls of the 2 areas.

At present, 15 of the 31 sorority groups who are members of national Pan-Hellenic, are represented locally. It is hoped that representation may be found from the other 16. Sorority women interested in assisting the project may contact Mrs. Clifford H. Cooper, CL 3-6610.

Celebrating their golden wedding anniversary at an open house Sunday, March 27 will be Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Mayer, who have lived in Wheeling since their marriage April 5, 1905. Open house will be from 2 to 6 p. m. at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Carl Hoffmeier, County Line and Sanders rds., Deerfield. Besides Mrs. Hoffmeier, Mr. Mayer, 74, and Mrs. Mayer, 72, have three other daughters, Mrs. Lester Dobbins of Arlington Heights, Mrs. Sam Woodall of Wheeling and Mrs. Leonard Arnold of Mount Prospect. They also have 13 grandchildren and two great grandchildren. —Staff Photo

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore white Chantilly lace over satin with a chapel train and carried a bridal bouquet of gardenias and camellias. Her finger-tip veil fell from a small crown.

Her attendants were Peggy Anderson and Joyce Bloeser. Vernon Ross served as best man and the bride's brother, Kenneth Baker, as usher. The bride's cousin, Patricia Mitchell, was flower girl and Allan Oleksiak was ring bearer.

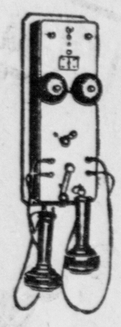
Install 3 Millionth Phone



ONE OF THE EARLY telephones in Chicago

THE 1 MILLIONTH telephone in Illinois Bell territory

THE 2 MILLIONTH telephone in Illinois Bell territory

THE 3 MILLIONTH telephone in Illinois Bell territory

From a distance of several feet, the user can speak into the microphone in the telephone's base and hear perfectly through a small speaker on the desk. It is not necessary to touch or lift the receiver even when dialing. Or the telephone can be used in the conventional manner when preferred.

Illinois Bell Telephone company's 3,000,000th telephone was installed Friday in a Chicago residence.

The instrument, installed as an extension, is a new type known as a "hands-free" telephone. It is a combination telephone, microphone and loud speaker and can be used without lifting the transmitter and receiver. The user simply pushes a button and dials the called party and talks in a normal tone of voice even though he may be several feet away from the instrument. Anyone around his desk may also talk.

W. V. Kahler, president of Illinois Bell, made the first call to George R. Perrine, chairman of the Illinois commerce commission.

"The installation of the 3,000,000th telephone was a demonstration of the progress made by the Telephone Company," Kahler said. "Our goal is to be able to give the kind of service desired and when and where it is wanted."

Red Cross Volunteers Prepare Dressings

More than 1,500 Red Cross Production volunteers, working at Chicago Chapter headquarters and in 65 production units throughout Chicagoland, made 1,200,000 surgical dressings, 23,043 sewed garments, and 1,502 knitted articles during the past year.

With the opening to the two new Veterans Administration hospitals in the Chicago Chapter area, the call for surgicals has increased greatly, and more dressings were produced last year than any year since the war, Mrs. Shaw explained. For a delicate brain operation, often as many as 1,000 small intricate brain dressings are needed, she added.

In the past hospital nurses made all these surgical dressings, but today, with the shortage of nurses, the Red Cross production volunteers have taken this work off their hands, thus giving the nurses more time with their patients.

'Schools Must Have Help,' Says Noble J. Puffer

Do we need federal aid to education? Should all aid for schools be provided at the local level, or should the state accept a definite share of the responsibility for assisting citizens in providing the facilities needed? Can the rapidly growing suburban community in Illinois pay the bill from local real-estate taxes?

These are some of the questions which must be answered when discussing President Eisenhower's recent program for federal assistance in the building of badly needed classrooms to relieve the overcrowded conditions.

Recently the Council of State School officers vigorously opposed the plan because forty states opposed the President's proposal. It did not provide direct aid to needy districts, and quoting Dr. Edgar Fuller of the Council, "It would be an example of federal discrimination against schools in contrast with generous federal grants to highways, hospitals and other physical facilities—would make education an orphan —relegate it to the local real estate tax."

County Superintendent of Schools Puffer, in commenting on President Eisenhower's proposal said, "In Illinois the building of school facilities is already completely dependent upon local real estate, which is already heavily burdened. What we need for the youth of Cook County and the Nation is a 'Marshall Plan' for our schools! The support of our European allies was a wise investment as proved over a period of time. What better investment could we (the federal government) make than in our children, than by providing sufficient funds to make possible, decent educational facilities (classrooms) for our youth?"

"Are interstate roads more important to our future? Important as plans for national defense are, funds invested in our children are an equally important defense, a defense against the invasion of the minds of our school youth by foreign ideologies —an invasion which can be most successfully met by a well educated citizenry."

Federal funds have been provided for our high schools for years under the Smith Hughes Act for assistance in the field of Vocational Education. It has not meant "federal control!" The Lanham Act did not cause federal interference in the local management of our high schools! Vocational payments to our land grant colleges have not resulted in federal control! On the contrary the federal grants have provided much needed assistance in promoting a genuinely productive program for our youth which was not provided until the grants were made by Congress.

Commenting further, County Superintendent Noble J. Puffer says, "I would prefer to have the schools built by the local school districts if they could. However this is getting to be almost impossible, for already 45 of our 132 elementary districts in Cook county have exhausted their constitutional bonding power, and while the assessed value is rising each year, the increased bonding power it releases does not keep pace with the increased school enrollment.

For one third of our local elementary school districts there is no choice but to seek aid of the State of Illinois, or Federal Aid. If the state can and will provide needed funds, then there is no need for the Federal Government to come to assistance."

Lighting Tips for Homemakers

Just as smartly dressed women begin every season's wardrobe with one good basic dress, the lighting in every room in your home should start with a large size, well-shaded ceiling fixture.

The latest designs include large shallow fixtures, 16 to 22 inches in diameter that give a character of lighting never before available in medium priced equipment.

Their shallow form makes these new fixtures less obtrusive and in good harmony with the ceiling area they are seen against.

Ample size makes it possible to use a large enough number of sockets to give appropriate amounts of light without uncomfortable brightness.

You'll enjoy the tonic-like effect an attractively designed, efficient fixture can have on almost every room in your home.

IF YOU WANT your rooms to look larger, say General Electric lighting authorities, choose medium to light wall finishes. Light colors reflect the light back to the eye while dark finishes absorb light and create a heavy, dull feeling in the room.

NECESSITY is often the mother of invention and many a smart cook who keeps her heat lamp handy in the kitchen constantly discovers new ways it can save her time. This quick, convenient source of heat can be of great help in crisping crackers, cereals and crumbs. Try it, too, for softening butter to spreading consistency for sandwiches.

Antioch Merchants Fight Sales Tax Hike

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce hurled protests this week at the proposed increase in the-state sales tax.

Gov. Stratton, newspapers, and educational leaders have urged the increase to meet critical school and welfare needs in Illinis.

President George Borovicka said the Chamber felt the tax hike would be an "unfair burden on retail business" and do "definite harm" to business.

He urged merchants to write their state representatives protesting the measure.

Above, Barbara is shown at the right receiving tips from Ted McMillen, general secretary of the Springfield YMCA on wall-painting. Gretchen Hosier, Cincinnati is the other coed.

Barbara was pledged to Alpha Delta Pi sorority. She was one of the some 200 pledges who painted, cleaned and washed windows during Greek week, the time set aside by the Wittenberg social groups to promote better community and college relations through social work activities.

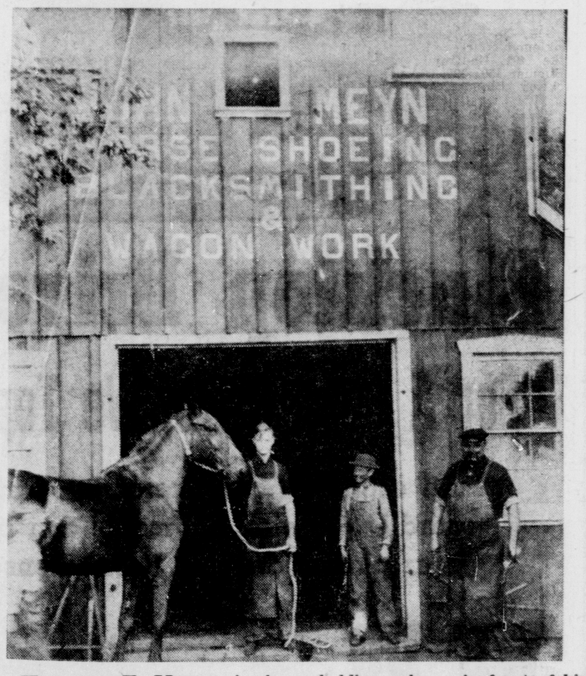
Building-trade classes at Barrington high school don't just learn theory of construction, they include actual building, as well. A group of boys are shown above in their annual job of building a house, then selling it, under guidance of instructor Vecal P. Lager. Picture story of the class will be found in April American Home magazine.



Herman F. Meyn, is shown holding a horse in front of his father's blacksmith shop in 1908 when he was 19 years old. His father, John, is at extreme right with his brother, William, between them. The youngest brother, Johnny, is at extreme lower left.

Wearing Gay Nineties costumes, Mrs. Roy Hardin, Mrs. Russell Brown and Mrs. Fred Doerr, left to right, will tour surrounding communities Saturday in this 1923 Buick open touring car to advertise the antiques show and sale to be held Tuesday and Wednesday at Mount Prospect country club. The show is sponsored by the women's organization of Community Presbyterian church and will feature 14 antique dealers from Elgin, Chicago, and suburbs. The auto is the property of American Legion Merle guid post 208, Arlington Heights.

Prudential Sales

Henry C. Bauer, manager of the Prudential insurance company's Evanston district office at 845 Chicago ave., reported payments to Prudential policyholders and beneficiaries in Illinois during 1954 totaled 61 million, 503 thousand dollars. 66.9 per cent of the amount, or more than 41 million dollars, was paid directly to living policyholders.

Mr. Bauer further stated that at the year end, more than 2 million, 300 thousand Illinois residents owned over 3 billion, 199 million dollars of Prudential life insurance, representing an increase of 223 million dollars over 1953.

Prudential life insurance sales to Illinois residents during the past year amounted to 359 million, 774 thousand dollars. The company's mortgage loan holdings in Illinois totaled 206 million, 486 thousand dollars, for an average mortgage loan of 12,054 dollars.

State Contract

The state division of architecture and engineering has awarded a $69,160 contract to Illinois Range Co., Mt. Prospect, for cafeteria-kitchen equipment for the new state office building under construction at Springfield.

Many 'If's' To Tell Future Of Business

Construction, auto sales, and employment hold the key to some big "if's" on the nation's business horizon. Amidst widespread optimism on the part of consumers and businessmen, the Federal Reserve bank of Chicago notes that most business observers are keeping a watchful eye on these vital props to our current high-level economy.

In its monthly review, "Business Conditions," the banks says that new home buying will have to exceed the year-ago rate by a substantial margin if residential construction is to hold to its present pace. Yet, the construction industry appears to be well launched on another record year. Over-all construction in the U.S. was 13 per cent avove a year ago in January, and February reports indicate a contract-award gain of 30 per cent over 1954 levels.

MIDWEST construction activity is likely to be especially strong in 1955. Construction awards in the seventh district during January exceeded last year by 50 per cent.

Automobile sales, too, must remain at record levels if they are to continue to bolster the economy. Passenger car output has provided the most spectacular production development of recent months. For December and January combined, retail deliveries are estimated at 1.1 million, far more than ever before in those months. In February, a record 170,000 units per week were being turned out.

Reported production schedules for the February-April period call for an output of over 2.1 million cars. Thus by early May the industry will have passed the halfway point toward reaching the most optimistic forecast of 6 million for the calendar year.

ON THE NATION'S labor front employment increases have been lagging behind the industrial and construction pickup. But if the current high level of business activity continues, the unemployment total (now over 3 million) will melt considerably by spring. In recent weeks new jobless compensation claims have been fairly heavy though still well below last year.

The total number of persons collecting unemployment compensation throughout the country in mid-February ran about one-tenth under the year-earlier level. In the seventh (Midwest) district, this figure was down about 25 per cent.

Bits O' Business

Steel output in the first two months of 1955 was 2.3 million tons greater than in the like period of 1954 . . . Paper and paperboard production both moved up a notch in the week of March 5 from the week before, to 97.6 per cent of capacity for paper and 96 per cent for board . . . Earning Amount For Maximum Payment Of Social Security

"How much must I earn to receive the maximum amount payable under social security?," is one of the most frequent questions asked, according to Julius Berman, manager of the social security office at 4255 Milwaukee ave.

Present maximum payments for a retired worker and his wife are $98.50 and $49.30 respectively, said Mr. Berman. Maximum monthly survivor payments for a widow and children are $200.00 in addition to a single lump-sum death payment of $255.00. These amounts, however, are maximum payments and are payable if the worker has averaged at least $300 a month. Beginning this year, 1955, social security taxes will be deducted on the first $4200.00 of a worker's annual earnings. Any worker retiring after mid-1956 will receive a monthly payment of $108.50, provided he earns at least $350.00 a month. His wife will receive $54.30.

Mr. Berman suggests that persons with questions about social security visit or phone their nearest social security office.

Make It Yourself

Vee Powell

Subject: Make Your Own Heirlooms

Ever envy someone who has just inherited one of those lovely old Tole trays? Well, "Toleware" is again available and you can decorate your own! And not only trays of every size are available but there are reproductions of candle sconces, letter holders, waste baskets, crumb trays, milk ladles, sugar scoops, old match boxes and cradle plant-holders as well as tiny miniatures that are easily assembled into Toleware jewelry, such as pins, earrings and cuff links.

Now all the old Toleware we've ever seen has been black or ivory metal — hand decorated in bright, gay colors, highlighted with touches of gold. But today manufacturers offer not only these two basic background colors but a further choice of at least a dozen muted tones both pastels and deep jewel shades.

The sample collection we are making for the studio display all came with patterns for authentic "Colonial" designs but after following a few of them, we struck out on our own. We found that simple designs, sort of "Peter Hunt-ish" were easy and fun to do, and fancy roses and lilacs and daisies (all the old-fashioned flowers) look right at home on Tole. Bold, swift (but careful) strokes, showing all the brush marks, make for typical Tole decorations and you can use a riot of colors all those that you feel are in harmony and suitable for the subject matter. Sometimes it is very relaxing to throw restraint out the window and use color, color and still more color!

Since all this ware is useful as well as decorative, the finishing is important. Several coats of varnish (with in-between rub-downs of steel wool) make the decorations practically everlasting and the desired final finish is a dull satiny sheen. This ware is not expensive until it is decorated (as you will find if you price it in the stores) and of course, the more handwork, the better the price. On a shopping trip to the loop, we found a deep "apple tray-dish" (so useful for all kinds of fruit) hand-forged and decorated, priced at well over ten dollars, while the undecorated duplicate can be had for less than $5.00. A large Chippendale tray selling for $7.00 can be had for $3.00 and the Colonial cufflinks (nice Fathers Day gift) selling at $2.25, can be had (undecorated) for 90c a pair. All worthwhile savings for Make it Yourself-ers!

We've had lots of requests about neighborhood Hobby Clubs, how to start them, what projects are most suitable and interesting, the most "useful", where to get the proper supplies and so on. Well, all these questions are not hard to answer and we'll be glad to discuss them with any individual or group. In the first place we carry Art and Craft supplies not everything (who could?) but what we don't have (in lines that we specialize in) we can order and get for you within a few days time. When we say "specialize," we mean just that the ones that we, ourselves, have tested and found practical. This automatically rules out airplane kits, car and ship models, etc., because, frankly, we can hardly tell one car from another and all we know about airplanes is that "B" stands for "bombers" (we think!).

Our interests lie mostly in the fields of creative art and "feminine" crafts and we've made hundreds of experiments with both, discarding a lot of source material simply because we find that it is faulty in one way o ranother, too expensive, too hard to get, too hard to work with, doesn't live up to manufacturers claims, etc. This policy may seem limiting but we think if you look around our studio, you will still find a lot of choice! As for a "Hobby Group" that's easy, too! Just say to one of your friends or neighbors, "Let's make something, do something with our spare time; get organized and start a project!" If you can get one person interested, you're on your way to an eventual "Club," be it large or small!

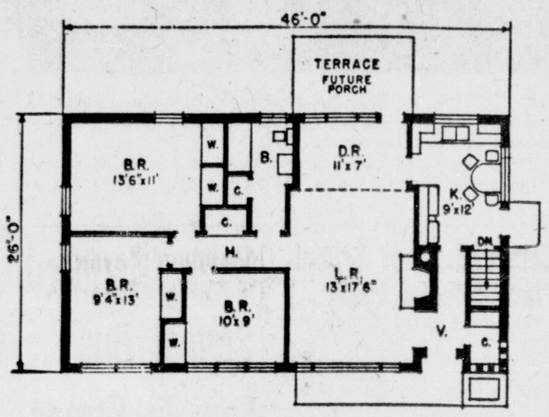
Space-Saver Design Wins Small Homes Guide Prize

Of attractive and simple design, with virtually no waste space, this house by Architect Elmer Gylleck is the first-prize winner in the current edition of Small Homes Guide.

Rectangular design makes the house simple and economical to build; the plan is excellently balanced; storage space is generous; bathroom facilities are easily accessible from all areas of the house; the exterior is pleasing to the eye; use of windows is well planned.

The design shown here is for economical concrete-block construction, but frame construction can be used. Area is 1,196 sq. ft. Information of blueprints and their cost may be obtained by writing to Small Homes Guide, Dept. 1507, 621 N. Dearborn Street, Chicago 10, Ill.



Tree Planting On A Small Lot Job For Expert

Even smaller home properties need a professional landscaping touch. As lot size diminishes, difficulties increase in arranging artistic settings without crowding.

This is particularly true of tree selection and placement points out R. M. Smith, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert co. Trees are permanent outdoors pets and as such are the keystones of the landscape. And it is important to get the ultimate in utility as well as beauty from them. All other plantings are subordinate to them.

Because of this small home owners often find it a sound investment to obtain professional help. Smallerplants— shrubs, perennias Smaller plants—shrubs, perennials and evergreens—can be changed when they outgrow their attractiveness. Not so, however, with the major trees like oaks, maples, lindens, gums and others.

In many of the larger community developments, the builder does the landscaping. Frequently these plantings are quite uniform. Restrictions of space, necessary utilities and economic limitations may influence the design and narrow the choice of plants. Sometimes the new home owner adds a personal touch by relocating and replacing some material but here again the do-it-yourself enthusiast would do well to seek professional advice.

Trees will influence the appearance of your home for many years to come. Getting the right trees in the right place will pay off in enduring satisfaction.

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

When God spoke "out of the whirlwind" to Job, he set the man's misconceptions straight. The ways of God are shrouded in mystery. A man is presumptuous to insist upon knowing everything.

Thus, you note the sarcasm of chapters 38-42. "Where were you when creation took place? Surely in all of your wisdom, you decided how we ought to arrange matters. Did you set the bounds of the seas? Or perhaps, you decided when the sun was supposed to shine, and when it should be night?" The whole effect of this cataclysm of words pouring over Job's head is much different from that of the friends.

GOD REMINDED Job that he had reached too high; but in reminding him, God reached down. What really troubled Job — what really troubles men and women in times of trial — is not the question, 'Why do I suffer?" but the question, "Why must I suffer alone?"

Although still on his ash-heap, still covered with sores, Job finds strength to say to God, "I had only heard about you," my acquaintance was a pretty perfunctory thing, "but now I see you with my own eyes," and since I know you, and know that you are here, I am content—even though nothing has been changed.

You have seen the same thing frequently. The child hurts itself and runs to mother. Mother "kisses it to make it well" — really quite unsanitary if the injury is a cut—but it is the kiss that is important. Mother may, if she is wise, add a band-aid, a touch of antiseptic, but the child really yearns for sympathy.

OF COURSE, the Book of Job trails off in a "loose end." What else could it do? There is as yet no Gospel of One who although He was in the form and likeness of God did not hesitate to be found in the form and likeness of a man and to suffer death—even death on the cross—in order that the Gospel of reconciliation might be preached and loved.

When Job suddenly gets back all of his lands and flocks and possessions, you and I may say, How come! If this Book contradicts the theory that rewards come in proportion to goodness, why is Job rewarded? In the time of this Book's writing, there may have been no other way to finish. I am inclined to think it not a conclusion, but a trailing off. It has to stop, and this sort of closes it.

For those who have heard the good news of God in Christ, it is obvious why there is this kind of stopping. So we are introduced into the ever-growing, ever-expanding appreciation of the mystery of God's love for men with its transforming power to change our lives.

Seek Standard School Bus Law In States

The Illinois school bus law needs amending because sections of it have been outmoded by multi-lane highway construction according to Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor club.

He said safer driving conditions would also result from bringing the law into accord with the model law adopted by the national committee on uniform traffic laws and ordinances.

The present law as interpreted by the attorney general makes it mandatory for all vehicles to stop for halted buses, regardless of their direction of travel. Stops are required even on four lane highways divided by median strips.

HAYES CITED an example of how the present law, being at variance with laws elsewhere, can cause accidents.

"An out-of-state motorist probably won't know he is required to stop for a school bus halted on an expressway, and headed in the opposite direction from which he is traveling.

"The motorist in front of him stops. The out-of-state man can't. There is a rear-end collision."

HAYES ALSO pointed to the confusion of colors used in various states to paint buses to alert motorists they are faced with the situation of children alighting.

Bus colors range from unspecified in eight states to black in Louisiana, orange in others, and yellow in 29 other states, Hayes said.
